JRLW President's Message

Your Board of Directors has begun a busy schedule. Some of the changes that were under discussion included a new Life Membership for which there is an article in this newsletter explaining the details, changing our Sunday breakfast to a Sunday Brunch with stimulating programs. Your Board is looking outside the box and welcomes ideas and suggestions from our membership for us to consider. For an organization to grow, it must be open to new ideas and reevaluation of the old.

An example is our Choir. Unless we get more volunteers, we may have to consider its elimination. It is embarrassing to have 2 or 3 people show up.

What I have instituted for the Board is a brainstorming period to ferret out new ideas and discussion of old ones. This has stimulated lively discussions amongst the Board members. No idea is too farfetched. I have charged Theda Rosenblum to investigate a trip to a Nationals Baseball game. We need some events that stimulate male participation.

Though there are articles covering some of the following, I feel that the President should put in his 2 cents worth. Membership fees are due now. If they are not paid, High Holiday tickets will cost you $35 more than what members pay. The Board has voted to disallow partial ticket payments for the holidays with an exception for those active military personnel who will be welcome as our guests.

I would like to thank all of those who have participated in our Shabbat services, the Yizkor Book, and all of our activities that require time and effort. There are so many that I will not list their names. They are obvious in our many articles that are published. I am encouraging them to continue their efforts. It is through our volunteers that JRLW manages to operate and survive. If you are interested in assisting us, please contact me and I will put you in touch with the appropriate person. Future articles will feature specific jobs that we need additional assistance to function at the highest level. Thank you for listening.

ACE PROGRAMS COMING TO LEISURE WORLD!

The Adult Center for Education (ACE) is coming to Leisure World, co-sponsored by the Jewish Residents of LW, to provide stimulating opportunities for all residents to learn and grow.

From October 16 - November 20, the Leisure World classes will meet in Club House I on Tuesdays from 9:45 am to 3:45 pm. There will be four courses from which to choose. You are welcome to select one, two or all four courses. If you want to stay for the day arrangements are being made to have a buffet lunch available so that you will be able to purchase a lunch at a reasonable cost provided by LW caterer Ed Robinson.

The cost for each six-week course will be $15 for residents of Leisure World. Brochures will be available in August and registration will begin in the E&R office once classes are listed in the LW News starting in mid-August.

Tentative Schedule of Classes:

| Course Title                         | Instructor | Time                |
|--------------------------------------|------------|---------------------|
| Heroes and Villains                  | Paul Levy  | 9:45 -11 am         |
| Israel Today                         | Series     | 11:15am-12:15pm |
| History of Jews in the United States | Ira Weiss  | 1-2:30 pm           |
| Biographies of Eminent People        | Series     | 2:45-3:45 pm        |

Be a part of this exciting opportunity to expand your world intellectually and socially. Let education continue to keep your spirit and your mind young. See you this fall when you go back to school again at the Adult Center for Education (ACE) Seminars.

DEADLINE FOR THE SEPTEMBER NEWSLETTER IS MONDAY AUGUST 8th. ARTICLES RECEIVED AFTER THE DEADLINE WILL APPEAR IN THE OCTOBER NEWSLETTER.

MEMBERSHIP

Many thanks to all of you who have paid your membership dues. JRLW truly appreciates your conscientiousness. For those of you who have not yet paid your dues, please do so. Membership is the heart of the organization. As previously said, without our members there is no organization. Dues are $18 for singles and $36 for couples and should be sent to:

JRLW Membership, P.O. Box
12133, Silver Spring, MD 20908

Your Board of Directors has created a program that negates the annual payment of dues. It is a Life Membership that requires a one-time payment based on your current age category. Considering the inevitability of a dues increase in future years, this becomes a long-term money saving opportunity. Becoming a Life Member is an individual option.

An example of a couple ages 70 and 76, the cost would be $285 plus $225 for a total one-time payment of $510. If you decide to participate and have paid your dues already, those dues will be deducted ($510 minus $36 = $474). As a non-profit organization, this is a tax-deductible contribution. Sometimes members want to pay their dues without being reminded each year.

Do the math? See if it works out for you? Please call and let me know when you decide positively.

| Age Category | Cost |
|---------------------|-------------|
| 64 and under        | $375       |
| 65-69               | $300       |
| 70-74               | $285       |
| 75-79               | $225       |
| 80-84               | $175       |
| 85 plus             | $100       |

RELIGIOUS ARTWORK IN THE INTERFAITH CHAPEL

On the first Friday of each month an effort to make the Chapel resemble the inside of a Temple or Synagogue has been a challenge for our Religious Committee. We try to do this with Jewish covers, an electric Menorah, an Israeli Flag, candles, Kiddush Cup and, last but not least, pictures to put on the back shelf to be seen by the Congregation.

For the last few years Mort Rudo, part of the setup crew, has been acquiring new pictures and replacing former pictures. We have some new interesting pieces to enjoy. There are two original paintings by Mort, a Menorah and a copy of a Chagall titled "The Praying Rabbi." We have a registered print of the "Garden of Eden and Noah's Ark" by Philip Ratner contributed by Herb Snyder. Sheila and Mickey Meyers contributed another picture of a rabbi. Recently, Florence Mudrick contributed a painting of a rabbi which was owned by her husband Max.

New paintings, hangings, plaques, Menorahs, photographs or whatever you think is appropriate to display on Fridays nights are a welcome addition. For more information or contributions, please contact

Mort Rudo, mortrudo@verizon.net or 301-598-1153.

My name is Dr. Sue Schwartz. I am a new resident in Fairways North. My career was in special education. I have written several books. I read a book called "Eye of My Heart," which is 27 essays written by grandparents of typically developing grandchildren. I immediately thought we should have a similar book from grandparents of special needs grands. Specifically, I am looking for the following areas: deaf, autism, physically challenged, and down syndrome. Would you be interested in writing YOUR story? If so, please contact me at drsues41@gmail.com or 301-598-3842. Looking forward to hearing from you. Sue Schwartz

PHYLLYS HUTT'S CORNER

I DREAM OF GENEALOGY

Last winter I received an email asking for some information on "The Steinbergs of Philadelphia." It sounded like a book title, sort of a "Barretts of Wimpole Street" kind of thing. I provided what information I could and later received a complete genealogy in the mail. Through Skype and many e-mails I got to know a few "long lost" cousins, although I really didn't know about them in the first place. How kind of this distant cousin to provide me with this information.

It seems that my paternal grandfather, Nathan Steinberg, an obvious pro-lifer, had ten children. Among those children, several sons took non-Jewish wives. Now, it seems that this prompted a gigantic Steinberg family reunion, to be held in Philadelphia. Some relatives who have already indicated that they will attend are: Timothy Wallingford Steinberg, Ronald Fitzpatrick Steinberg, James Anthony Steinberg and Donald Ellsworth Steinberg, whom I fondly refer to as "Timmy and Jimmy and Donny and Ronny." Somehow, the names don't quite seem to blend together well.

This reunion will be celebrated in the form of a gigantic barbecue of titanic proportions, complete with all the trimmings. (Will the beef be kosher or, G-d forbid, pork???) I am concerned about this as there will also be in attendance Rabbi Zvi Elias Steinberg and many of his family of eleven children. I wish I could attend. Aaah, to be a fly on the wall! It brings to mind a poem that I wrote many years ago, which I hope was not a harbinger of things to come.

Philadelphia is not such a great place to be.
Even the rain there is wetter.
It isn't much fun being there when you're dead...
And living there isn't much better!

GOOD AND WELFARE

We are happy to report that our immediate Past President Dolly Solomon is back home following hospitalization and stay in rehab, due to back problems.

Adele Traurig recently underwent back surgery. We send her our good wishes for a speedy recovery.

Mildred Rosenthal suffered serious back problems. We hope that by the time you read this, Millie will be well on her way to restored good health.

Congratulations to Florence Wolfe who has been chosen "Woman of Valor" by her Synagogue, Har Shalom. Couldn't think of a more deserving person.

Florence Lipsky's granddaughter Rebekah Lipsky has graduated 3rd in her class, the 138th Academy Class of Maryland State Troopers. Rebekah was named the most improved in Physical Fitness and received an award for Outstanding Leadership. The ceremony was extra special because Rebekah's father, Robert Lipsky, who retired as a State Trooper was allowed to 'pin' her. She will be stationed in Bowie, Maryland. We know that Florence is quelling!

There must be many of us who have grandchildren who are entering or going back to college this fall. It would be awesome if you e-mailed or called me with names and schools. In the September Newsletter I would like to print a list of names of grandchildren and the school they will be attending. Let me know the names and I will do the rest. My e-mail is bernifc@juo.com and my phone number is 301-598-0192. I'll be waiting for your call or e-mail.

Get well wishes to Joanne Sternberg.

RECIPE CORNER

COLD FRUIT SOUP

B. Cohen

This is a simple recipe for a delicious summer soup. The ingredients aren't precise because you can use any fruits you have on hand, except blueberries which tend to give the soup a bluish tinge. Also it is made to your taste.

1 large container sour cream

1 cup ice cubes

1 can ginger ale

2 to 3 cups of cubed fruit (melons, strawberries, peaches, etc.)

Fresh mint.

Put ingredients in blender or food processor. You may have to do this in two batches. Blend until pureed. Serve while still chilled. Top with sprig of mint. Enjoy!

SOCIAL SERVICES FOR HOLOCAUST SURVIVORS

U.S. Senators Barbara A. Mikulski and Ben Cardin (both D-Md.) along with Senator Mark Kirk (R-III.) have introduced a bill that would ensure that Holocaust survivors can better access needed services, such as health care and nutrition services, without having to live in a nursing or assisted living facility. The RUSH Act will amend the Older Americans Act of 1965 to provide needed protections for survivors of the Holocaust who managed to make it to the United States.

Senator Mikulski said, "This legislation follows through on our commitment to these survivors by ensuring that the services and community-based care they need are available to help them live more independent and active lives."

"We have an obligation to provide aging Americans access to the services that they need -- and the community support they deserve -- in a setting that is not mentally or physically exhausting or traumatizing. Holocaust survivors fled to our country because of persecution for who they were. These great Americans deserve our attention and our efforts to ensure that they are more able to age in place," said Senator Cardin.

This legislation addresses the challenges facing the nearly 130,000 survivors who reside both at home and at long-term care facilities by ensuring their special needs are recognized.

OUTREACH

---

Phyllis Hutt is Outreach Chairperson for JRLW. She sends notes to those who are ill or have a simcha to celebrate. She also sends out notes to those who have suffered a loss of a loved one.

If you know of someone who falls in any of these categories, please let Phyllis know. Her e-mail address is: Phyllasil@aol.com. Her phone number is 301-438-2005.

Phyllis is one of our hidden treasures. She has been sending out notes for JRLW for years without any fanfare. Her work for our organization is truly appreciated. Her homespun articles appear in each of our Newsletters, and if she misses a month, people let us know. Keep up the good work, Phyllis.

GRANDCHILDREN TALENT

Here is a poem written by the granddaughter of Evelyn Perlmutter. No wonder Evelyn is so proud of her.

DUST ON MY TRAIL

I don't sit at the back waiting
 I sit at the front and ask
 I don't quit and laugh at others
 But finish and take pride in being laughed at
 I don't go in halfway only to regret it
 I dive in headfirst and love it
 I don't walk and cover up my footsteps
 I run and leave dust on my trail

They walk amongst us!

---

*One day I was walking down the beach with some friends when someone shouted.....
 'Look at that dead bird!'
 Someone looked up at the sky and said...'where?'

They walk amongst us!

---

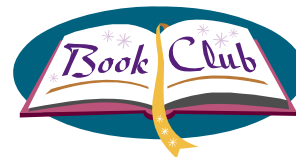

While looking at a house, my brother asked the Real Estate agent which direction was north because he didn't want the sun
 waking him up every morning.
 She asked, 'Does the sun rise in the north?'
 My brother explained that the sun rises in the east and has for sometime. She shook her head and said,
 'Oh, I don't keep up with all that stuff.....'

NA'AMAT BOOK CLUB

The Na'Amat Book Club meets the fourth Wednesday of every month. We usually meet in the home of one of the members. The books we read are decided on by the members at our annual book selection meeting. Each member is encouraged to bring two books, which she has already read, to this meeting. Eleven books are then selected by our members to be read the following year. At every meeting we each donate $2.00 to Na'Amat. Any member of Na'Amat may join. If you are interested, please call Clare Golub at 301-598-5892.
