PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As my first month as President has ended, I can proudly say that we are well on our way to a great year.

In order for us to continue to exist, it is imperative that everyone pay their dues, support functions and be full of pride to belong to such a wonderful organization as Jewish Residents of Leisure World. Our membership is very important and we want to continue to grow. If you are interested in joining a committee, please do not hesitate to call me and we will be sure to lead you in the right direction.

The High Holy days are rapidly approaching and on page 3 of this Newsletter there is a form to be filled out for Conservative or Reform Services and tickets for the Break the Fast.

I want to especially thank the wonderful 55 people that attended the Nationals Game on June 4, 2013. We got to the stadium, saw the Nat's win and eventually we did get home. For all of you that were unaware, the Metropolitan Police of D.C. did indeed follow the bus all the way back to the gate at Leisure World to insure our safety. Cheers to the D.C. Police and special cheers to all of us who attended for making the unnecessary inconvenience durable. With that said, the bus company did make a nice monetary contribution to JRLW.

I look forward every month, as I hope you do, to reading the Newsletter. Thank you Bernice Cohen and staff for the great job you do.

Shalom,

Morton A. Davis

High Holidays

The High Holidays will soon be upon us. Rosh Hashanah begins this year on Wednesday, September 4th with Reform Services in the Interfaith Chapel and the Conservative Services in the Activities Room of Clubhouse II. Both services will start at 7:00 pm. Yom Kippur services will begin this year with Kol Nidre on Friday, September 13th at 6:45 pm. Reform services will be held in the Interfaith Chapel and Conservative Services will be held in the Activities Room of Clubhouse II. Yom Kippur services will end on Saturday, September 14th with the sounding of the Shofar on 7:35 pm. A full schedule of services will be printed on your High Holiday tickets. As in the past, our Conservative Services will be conducted by Rabbi Gary Fink and Cantor Mike Kravitz, while the Reform Services will be conducted, for the first time, by Rabbah Arlene Berger and Cantor James Perlmutter.

Tickets for the High Holiday services and the Break-the-Fast will be available from Millie White who can be reached on 301-598-0211 with any questions.

Regular Services

During the year Friday evening services are conducted by Rabbi Fink who is assisted by Ed Laskin, our Choir Master. Conservative and Reform services alternate each month at the Interfaith Chapel at 8:00 pm. The next service will be a Reform service on August 2. Our Saturday morning services are led by Cantor Kravitz. Services are Conservative and are held in the Activities Room of Clubhouse II at 9:15 am. The next service will be held on August 10.

Sukkot

Soon after Yom Kippur we will celebrate the holiday of Sukkot. The Sukkah is the Hebrew word for booth or tabernacle - a temporary structure covered with plant material such as leafy overgrowth or palm leaves. The erection of the Sukkah is an annual event on the grounds of the Interfaith Chapel. The Sunday of the holiday, this year September 22nd, is open house when we invite the Interfaith community to join us from 12:00 PM to 3:00 PM.

The Sukkah will be open daily from September 19 to 24 from 1:00 to 3:00 PM. Maariv services will be conducted in the Sukkah Wednesday thru Friday and Sunday thru Tuesday nights, Sept. 18, 19, 20, 22, 23 and 24, at 7:00 PM. On Shabbat, September 21 we will hold Mincha services at 4:00 PM and will conclude with Havdalah. On each day of the holiday we will recite a blessing over the Lulav (closed frond of the date palm tree, bound with boughs and branches of the willow and myrtle trees) and etrog (yellow citron).

One of the rituals of this holiday is the eating of meals in the Sukkah with appropriate blessings. In Leisure World JRLW we follow this custom by providing snacks and drinks for the visitors. It is a blessing to sit down in the Sukkah, recite the blessings for the food and then have a bite to eat and a drink. A glass of wine or grape juice, a piece of challah or a cookie and the blessings make for a pleasant reminder of the hardships encountered by our forefathers as they struggled to survive in the barren desert and mountains outside of Israel.

Elaine Schenberg, Naomi Kline and Bob Fenichel have volunteered to staff the Sukkah, however they need help and would appreciate if members of JRLW would host the visitors to the Sukkah for one or more days. If you can spare two hours to help staff the Sukkah during the day please contact Elaine (301-598-0079).

Evening services will be conducted at 7:00 pm and coordinated by Jerry Weiss, but because the Sukkah is a temporary structure, electric lights will not be available. Anyone who has a flashlight or lantern is encouraged to bring it with them.

AUGUST SERVICES

Friday evening Shabbat Services will be held on August 2. Rabbi Fink will be conducting Reform Services. Oneg will follow Services.

Saturday morning Shabbat Services will be held on August 10. We are pleased to have Annette Cooper's son Drew lead the Services with participation of Annette's grandsons Cole, Jared, Dean and Grant. The D'var Torah will be given by Jerry Miller. Kiddush will follow Services.

LET'S TALK ABOUT DEADLINES!

The deadline for articles which are to appear in our Newsletter is the seventh day of the month preceding the month in which the article is to appear. For example, articles which are to appear in August should be received by me by July 7. The deadline is announced at every Board Meeting and appears almost every month in our Newsletter.

I know that people read our Newsletter because I get calls about misspelled words or even compliments about how nice the Newsletter looks. You may want to know why the deadline is so early in the month. I get articles and calls to put material in the Newsletter weeks after the deadline and up to a few days before the issue is to come out.

I decided that if you knew what our schedule is, you would be more likely to comply. (A special thanks here to Ruth Reid who almost always is the first person to submit her Na'Amat article).

As the article comes in, I go over it for obvious mistakes in grammar, dates and general appearance. When I have all the articles which are to appear in the issue, I print out each article separately and then call upon two to three proofreaders to come – at separate times – to do their thing. So far, we've covered about 10 days. Now, I send all the material to Nate Sternberg who does the layout of the Newsletter. This takes another few days, as Nate has to fit all of the articles as well as the advertisements (which help pay for the Newsletter), in place. Then he sends me his proof of our Newsletter. After any necessary changes are made, he sends me the proof a second time. If everything is o.k., Nate sends the Newsletter to the printer.

The printer sets up the Newsletter—which takes another couple of days – and then emails me his final proof. I scan it and sometimes find something that has to be changed. This process now has taken about 2 weeks. The next step is the printer sending our Newsletter to the mailing house. Since our material is being bulk-mailed, it is not delivered within a day or two. It is sent out when the Post Office gets around to it. Each mailman decides which mail gets delivered first. In our hi-rise building some people get their Newsletter 3 to 4 days before other people in the same building!

This whole process takes about 2 ½ to 3 weeks. We always try to get the Newsletter to you by the 1st of the month. THIS is why we set the deadline early. I find that our deadline is in keeping with or later than those organizations with a comparable size mailing.

Now that you know the whole story, I once again ask you to submit your articles by the deadline.

Thank you,

Bernice Cohen, Editor

PHYLLYS HUTT'S CORNER

NOT QUITE SO VAST

It was a rare occasion. My three children were together under one roof. Mine. I noted that "It was the best of times." They all agreed, "There goes Mom and her ancient, obsolete phrases."

The conversation then turned to books, writers, libraries and we got into a discussion of something like a combination of Trivial Pursuit and Jeopardy. Each of my children is quite an expert at matching wits.

On and on we went, when someone commented on the great amount of wit we experienced. I said, "Well, in MY generation it would amount to more like half of that amount." I also added that in my day we made it a practice of memorizing poetry and smart remarks. I said I was more knowledgeable because I was older, with more years under my belt to accumulate so many facts.

Whereupon, I was told, "Mom, your store of knowledge once was vast, but over the years one loses some of it and it becomes only half vast."

Potato Salad

Ingredients:

1 1/2 cups apple cider vinegar
 2 cups sugar or sweet and low
 1/4 cup of water
 1/2 cup mustard seeds
 4 lbs. red potatoes, quartered, cooked, and cooled
 2/3 cup sour cream-- regular or low fat
 2/3 cup of mayonnaise --regular or low fat
 1/3 cup champagne vinegar
 1/3 cup Dijon mustard
 1/3 cup whole grain mustard
 1/3 cup of honey
 1/3 cup olive oil
 1 tbsp. salt
 1 1/2 cups diced celery
 1 cup diced sweet onion
 1/2 cup chopped flat leaf parsley
 1/4 cup chopped fresh dill
 celery leaves

Directions:

1. Cook cider vinegar, sugar and water in a medium saucepan over medium-high heat stirring often, until sugar is dissolved; add mustard seeds.

Cook 20 minutes or until seeds are soft but slightly firm. Strain seeds, reserving liquid; set seeds aside.

Simmer reserved liquid until syrupy and reduced by half. Pour syrup over seeds; set aside and cool.

2. Place potatoes in a large bowl; set aside. Whisk sour cream, add the next 6 ingredients on the list, and add 1 tablespoon salt in a medium bowl. Pour mixture over the potatoes; toss gently.

3. Stir celery, and add next 3 ingredients on the list, 2 tbsp. mustard seed and add to potato mixture; toss gently.

4. Cover and chill for 3-4 hours. Garnish with celery leaves before serving.

Makes 8-10 servings.

Have YOU Made a Non-Driving Plan?

By Beth Shapiro, LCSW-C
Coming of Age in Maryland Social Worker

As a social worker, people often turn to me to discuss personal concerns. One that comes up often is driving. I hear things like, "I don't know what I'd do without my car!" "My family says they are concerned about my driving," and "I need to be able to drive so I can go wherever and whenever I decide!"

Today's conversation is more about getting from point A to point B instead of reducing the anxiety about not driving by making a plan. Think about it... we make a grocery list, plan a vacation and strategize about our retirement. Why don't we make a plan for when we will have to stop driving? Wouldn't your stress be reduced if you had a plan?

If this sounds like a good idea to you, give me a call. Ask me about JSSA's FREE To Drive or Not to Drive program. I can help you make your plan in only 3 meetings!

JRLW COMMITTEES RECEPTION TO BUILD A BETTER ORGANIZATION

President Morton Davis has announced a reception to introduce our members to the various JRLW committees and invite them to join those of interest. The reception will be held Thursday, August 29 at 2:00 pm in the Maryland Room of Clubhouse I. Light refreshments will be served.

The success of JRLW depends on the participation of our members in the various committees that serve the organization and LW community. There will be a representative of every committee there to present the goals of the committee, the needs and the opportunities for volunteers.

Every committee of JRLW is in need of people to help with the planning and execution of programs and events. You do not have to commit yourself for everything or for extensive meetings. If each of us contributes even to one small project or event, the sum total of our efforts will make for a healthier, more effective JRLW. It is important that you attend this reception. JRLW needs YOU!
