PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our new administration is in full swing, and we are off to a good start. Our board meeting, held on the first Tuesday of every month, is always open to any members who want to attend.

Our Sunday brunch in May, with Rabbi Uri Topolosky and family was delightful. It was enjoyed by all who attended. Sue Sandler and Evelyn Dickman are planning our Sunday morning brunches. There are many more wonderful brunches planned, so hopefully they will be well attended.

Our trip to the Naval Academy was a sell-out. Our next planned trip is to Atlantic City in November. Anita Van Grack and Dolly Solomon are busy planning the Malavah Malkah for November.

It is very important to me to hear from members of JRLW as to what they would like to do and what programs we should have. Any complaints or pleasing remarks should be directed to the President. We want to be known as an organization that does well for members of Jewish Residents of Leisure World.

Shalom,
Morton A. Davis

JRLW MOURNS PHYLLYS HUTT

Fred Shapiro

It is always disconcerting when you learn of the death of someone you know, someone who has been a contributor to the good life in the community in which we live. So it was with regret that we heard of the death of Phyllys Hutt, Friday June 20, 2014. She was buried in Mount Lebanon Cemetery next to her husband Paul.

Phyllys served as President of JRLW, after taking part in many of the activities of our organization. She always expressed a love for JRLW and its members. It was a pleasure working with her.

More of our members know of Phyllys from her great love – that of creative writing. She was a regular contributor to the JRLW newsletter. Her regular articles in the newsletter were a joy to read.

Being moved by the Yom Hashoah Memorial Service here in Leisure World, she composed a poem dedicated to those souls who lost their lives in the Holocaust. Her poem has been read many times since its introduction.

Phyllys, we know that you shall be welcomed in the Kingdom to come. Shalom.

Look no further than your next door neighbor...

RECIPE CORNER

EASY SUMMER SOUP

This recipe is for a cold summer soup that is so easy to make, yet tasty.

- 2 cups of peeled, cut up canteloupe, peaches or papaya.
- 1 pint sour cream.
- 1 can of ginger ale.
- 6 ice cubes

Put all ingredients in food processor and blend until smooth. For an extra tang, add a pinch of ginger. Refrigerate for 1/2 hour. Stir and pour into bowls. If desired, sprinkle soup with a few fresh blueberries. To make a lighter version, substitute light or non-fat sour cream and diet ginger ale. That's all there is to it.

MY TRIP TO EUROPE

Shirley Light

I have recently returned from a trip to Central Europe – a trip which was memorable and meaningful. Visiting Auschwitz and the other concentration camps was heart-wrenching. As much as you might have read about these camps, nothing can prepare you for the overwhelming emotions of horror and despair that overcome you when you are at the very spot that these atrocities took place.

Our visits to the cities of Prague, Budapest, Krakow and Warsaw did much to lift the gloom that enveloped us after our trip to the concentration camps. In each of the cities we witnessed a resurgence of Jewish culture. The one that impressed me most was the story of the Jewish Community Center in Krakow.

About eight years ago, Prince Philip of England was visiting Krakow during which time he met some Holocaust survivors. The survivors lamented that they had no place to gather or meet. Upon returning to England, Prince Philip spearheaded a drive to raise money for a Jewish Center in Krakow. Together with the Jewish organizations of England, six million dollars was raised for this cause. Six years ago, the Jewish Community Center of Krakow was completed and Prince Philip was there to cut the ribbon at the opening ceremonies.

Today, the Jewish Community Center of Krakow is the center of a revitalized Jewish culture. It has six hundred members, a Hebrew School, a nursery school, activities for survivors, a kosher kitchen and numerous other programs.

Our group had a delicious dinner hosted by the Jewish Community Center and we saw firsthand the enthusiasm and energy of the people who are the leaders there.

In other cities, we also saw dedicated Jewish leaders trying to rebuild Jewish culture. That was the uplifting part of our trip; for we came home knowing that despite the horrible tragedy of the Holocaust—Am Yisrael Chai!

WE PRAY FOR PEACE

At the time of this writing, we Jews are collectively praying and holding our breath. Each of us has a friend, relative or loved one living in Israel. We hear constantly about the bombings taking place, about the killing of innocent people. We are not praying for the death of anyone, rather we are praying for peace; for an end to the killing of anyone in that area.

The following prayer by Rabbi Elad Appelbaum of Jerusalem reflects the feelings and the hopes and the prayers of all Jews everywhere. May peace ultimately prevail.

“Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I fear no evil for You are with me.”
[Psalm 23:4]

For with You I yearned for the youths
With You I prayed for their lives, their dreams
With You I gazed in awe at parents whose lips and hands were steadfast
With You I pleaded that the power of love and kindness might grow in the land.

With You I was soul-torn when I heard that they were no more.
With You I lamented over our brothers who will not return.
With You I wept at the ruins of a human being who took the life of another.
With You I trembled at the dark evil within him.

And with You I Shall create a soul-saving distance from vengeance and blood.
With You I shall be restrained so that the holiness within me not be wiped away.
With You I shall hear the cry of children rising up from the earth.
From amidst the shards of humanity, of nations, and the darkest of evil.

And with You I pray
That I will again regain my spirit.

That I will again believe in the human creature.
That I will again hear every cry and weeping,
The voices of all human beings wherever they are.

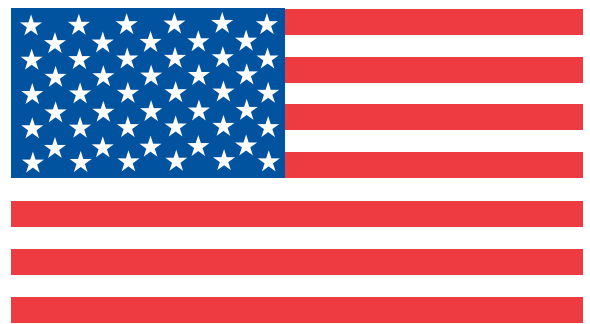

For You,
who in every generation has heard the cries of the innocent,
Must grant me the strength not to despair so that I can proclaim before You:
“I hereby take upon myself the yoke of the kingdom of life,
Of compassionate speech, of peace, and of love of humanity.”
Grant me strength so that my soul not die while I live,
So that I see the light of eternity begin to break through.

My God, I will again build
A home, a life, a world,
And Your light will guide my path.
The full stature of humanity will again be revealed.
I will not be afraid, I will not fear.
I will not retreat, for You are with me.

And the life and holiness and gentleness that You have planted
In every person, in every nation, and in every tongue,
In every creature of the universe,

They will comfort me.
