PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Malava Malka Dinner and Program scheduled for November had to be cancelled due to the poor response. Let us try to support our programs in the future. We realize that not all the programs we sponsor will appeal to everyone. Please read the Newsletter and try to attend some of the functions that our chairmen work so hard on. We try to provide programs that our membership will find of interest.

I want to thank our fantastic Membership Committee, Barbara Levin, Anita Sperling and our newest member Leah Weissman, for welcoming our recently joined members at the New Membership Reception on October 29. Also, many thanks to the board members who attended to make this so successful: Vice President Larry Sperling, who is truly supportive of our organization, as well as Vice President of Religious Affairs Allan Firestone, Recording Secretary Naomi Kline, Treasurer Milli White, Rabbi Moshe Samber, Kitty Atkin, Sue Sandler, Anita Van Grack and Shirley and Jerry Gordon. The attending chairmen explained what they did and invited everyone to get aboard and join them.

Our December Brunch is approaching. Don't forget to make your checks for your reservation made out to JRLW and mail them to Shirley and Jerry Gordon.

We will be celebrating Hanukkah this month, a Jewish holiday celebrated for eight days and nights of the month of Kislev. The word Hanukkah reminds us that this holiday commemorates the re-dedication of the holy Temple in Jerusalem following the victory over the Syrian Greeks in 165 B.C.E. Since the Jewish calendar is lunar based, every year the first day of Hanukkah falls on a different day. This year we light the first candle on December 16.

Happy Hanukkah and Shalom,
Morton A. Davis

JRLW BRUNCHES

Evelyn Dickman

JRLW has very interesting and entertaining programs for the upcoming winter brunches. Be sure and make your reservation for the December 21 brunch. Bruce Thomas will be our entertainer for this occasion. He is well known for his delightful voice and warm personality.

Also, mark your calendar for January 18, 2015. David Fishback will speak on the Jewish involvement with the Civil Rights movement.

Our famous "Fun and Fancy" entertainers will perform at our JRLW brunch on February 22.

Please mail your checks for $10.00 per person, payable to JRLW, to Shirley and Jerry Gordon, 15311 Beaverbrook Court, #3A, Silver Spring MD 20906.

Looking forward to seeing you at these Brunches.

JRLW SINGLES

Anita Van Grack

The JRLW Singles group is now open to any member of the Jewish Residents of Leisure World, single or married.

From now on, we will be meeting as a lunch group. Our next lunch will be held Thursday, January 15, at Bedford Court at 12 noon. To make a reservation, please send a check for $5.00, made out to JRLW (to be returned if you attend the lunch) to Kitty Atkin, 3310 N. Leisure World Blvd., #420, Silver Spring MD 20906.

We hope to see you in January.

KRISTALLNACHT SERVICE

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the participants in this year's Kristallnacht Service.

In order of appearance: Allan Firestone, Morton Davis, Rabbi Gary Fink, Ellen Zweig, Rudy Winternitz, Cantor Mike Kravitz, Joe Turtil, Larry Rosen, Egon Guttman, Bernice Cohen, Eugene Miller and the JRLW Choir led by Ed Laskin. We missed Susan Weiss who was to have been a participant, but was ill at the time. I would also like to thank Stanley and Lisa Friedman, who handed out the programs.

 Chairman

JRLW'S COMMUNITY RESOURCE CORNER

JSSA's Senior Services

(301) 816-2633

contactus@jssa.org

www.jssa.org

As even the most active adults age, maintaining independence and dignity can become more difficult. The Jewish Social Service Agency's (JSSA) skilled professionals and trained volunteers bring warmth, companionship and convenience into the daily lives of older adults and provide assistance to their families to help ensure that parents or loved ones are safe and well cared for. JSSA is also proud to provide a broad range of support services to help Holocaust survivors remain independent and connected to the community. Through counseling support, JSSA can help with life's greatest challenges including life's transitions, loss, relationship conflict, and illness. We offer consultation and assessment, in-home and in-office counseling, ongoing care planning and service coordination, and groups and workshops. Medicare, Maryland Medicaid and other insurances are accepted.

FUNERAL INFORMATION: PREPARING FOR THE FUTURE

Fred Shapiro

JRLW has working agreements with both the Judean Gardens and Dignity/Hines Renaldi for considerable savings when the unavoidable end occurs. These agreements are for preplanned arrangements. The agreements are not available if death has already occurred and the family is looking for relief. While both will adjust the prices somewhat because of membership in JRLW, the savings will not be the same as in preplanned agreements.

Judean Gardens has issued its new program for JRLW and the latest information reveals that total savings, including burial costs and bronze markers, can amount to $1,180.00. JRLW Discount Vouchers must be presented to confirm that the purchaser is a member of JRLW. These forms are available from Fred Shapiro, 301-598-7949, at the present time.

With all the information and misinformation circulating in the community due to the need for Dignity to divest itself of Sagel/Danzansky, it is best to contact Jamie Arthur at Dignity to get the latest information about the engagement of funeral director services when needed. Mr. Arthur can be reached at 202-966-6400 or his cell phone 240-463-6884.

WE REMEMBER

Our deepest sympathy to the family of

May her memory be as a blessing.

JRLW AND CoA PROGRAM:

THE SURGEON QUEEN DOCUMENTARY FILM

David Firestone

Four generations of a Jewish immigrant family created Russ and Daughters, a Lower East Side lox and herring emporium that thrives to this day. The documentary features interviews with two of the original daughters, now 100 and 92 years old. A discussion will follow.

Russ and Daughters opened in 1914. This year the still-thriving cured-fish palace celebrates its 100th anniversary. The film brings together six colorful longtime fans of the store who are in their 80's and 90's. Filmmaker Julie Cohen flew down to Pembroke Pines, Florida, to interview the two surviving members of Russ and Daughters' second generation owners.

The film will be shown Monday, December 22, 1:30 to 3:00 pm in Clubhouse II auditorium. Tickets are on sale in the E&R Office in Clubhouse I. The price is $6.00 per person, check payable to JRLW.

REMINDER:

On December 4, Mitchell Bard discusses his recent book, "Death to the Infidels: Radical Islam's War against the Jews." Tickets are on sale in the E&R Office in Clubhouse I for $6.00 per person, check payable to JRLW.

TELEPHONE SCAM!!!

Please be aware of the new telephone scam targeting people in this area. If you receive a phone call from someone claiming to be with the Internal Revenue Service and they inform you that the IRS is suing you—just hang up! Similar calls are being made from persons claiming to be from your bank asking for personal information.

The IRS would not phone you for such a purpose. If the IRS wants to reach you, you would receive a letter, not a phone call. This also applies to your bank. If you have caller I.D., you will not see a person's name or a phone number. This is a SCAM! Please do not fall victim to this fake call.

DECEMBER RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Friday Evening Reform Shabbat Services will be held December 5. Rabbi Gary Fink will conduct the Service and Ed Laskin will lead our choir. Socialize with friends at the Oneg following Services.

Saturday Morning Conservative Shabbat Services will be held December 13 in Clubhouse II. Cantor Mike Kravitz will conduct the Service. The Torah Portion will be Vayei-shev. Leonard Bosin will chant the Haftorah. Phil Wendkos will give the D'Var Torah. Join us for a Kiddush following Services.

RELIGIOUS COMMITTEE

Allan Firestone

For years JRLW has hosted Na'Amat and Hadassah with Sabbath Services which were always well attended.

Your Religious Committee has felt that the women of JRLW deserved their own Sabbath Service and has decided to host a Sabbath Service by and for the women of JRLW.

This service will be held on Saturday morning, May 9, 2015 (Weekly portion Emor, Leviticus 21:1-24:23, Haftorah, Ezekiel 44:15-31) to coincide with Mother's Day on the following day. The service will be a normal Saturday morning service and will be conducted entirely by the women of JRLW. To participate in the Service we will need volunteers to perform all the portions of the service; i.e., conducting the service, reading from the Torah, being called up to the Torah. There will also be opportunity for the women to participate with English readings, opening and closing the Ark, giving the D'var Torah, etc.

We wish to encourage all women who would like to participate, to express their interest and to let us know what portions of the service they would be comfortable with. Let us know if you are a Bat Kohen or Bat Levi so that we can plan to offer you the proper Alliyah when we call you up to the Torah.

Please mark your calendar for the Women's Sabbath and call Joan Engleman on 301-503-4484 (cell) or 301-598-4417 (home) to let her know of your interest.

RELIGIOUS COMMITTEE REPORT

Rabbi Moshe Samber

A new effort by the JRLW Religious Committee to expand the horizons of Jewish learning will be initiated on Shabbat morning January 3 at 9:15 am in Clubhouse II.

We will meet for an abbreviated Shachrit service, followed by a discussion of the weekly Torah portion, followed by Musaf and concluding with the study of the first Mishnah of each tractate of the Talmud (Oral law).

Our prayer-study-discussion Minyan will conclude at 10:45 am, and we expect to meet every Shabbat with the exception of the second Shabbat of the month when our longtime Conservative Service will meet at its usual hour of 9:15 am with a Torah Service and Kiddush.

In this way you will no longer have to consult your calendar only your clock, as there will be a service every Shabbat at 9:15. Please let Allan Firestone (301-598-7311) know if you plan to attend so that we can prepare adequately.

OH CHANUKAH

Oh Chanukah, Oh Chanukah,
Come light the Menorah!
Let's have a party,
We'll all dance the hora.
Gather round the table,
We'll give you a treat.
Dreidels to play with, latkes to eat.

And while we are playing,
The candles are burning low.
One for each night,
They shed a sweet light.
To remind us of days long ago;
One for each night,
They shed a sweet light,
To remind us of days long ago.

GOOD AND WELFARE

Congratulations to Poppy Traunfeld on the birth of a great granddaughter.

We are happy that Trudy Stone is home following hospitalization. We wish her a speedy return to good health.

Joy Podolsky is now a resident in Collingswood Nursing and Rehab Center. If you would like to speak with her, you may call her at 301-795-9636.

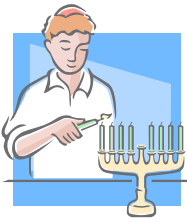

Mazel Tov to Audrey Frank on the birth of a great grandchild.

Welcome to all of our new members of Jewish Residents of Leisure World. We look forward to seeing you at our upcoming events.

A big Yasher Koach to Fred Firnbacher for putting together such a memorable program at our Kristallnacht observance.

By now, many of our snow birds have flown to warmer climates. We wish you a happy winter and a safe return to our area in the spring.

Mazel Tov to Ruth and Al Temin on the marriage of their granddaughter Cantor Rebecca Pohl to Andrew Apt. The wedding took place on November 2.

WHO STOLE MY CHANUKAH?

Editorial

My memories of Chanukah go back to when I was a young child. We had a tin Chanukah Menorah. Each night of Chanukah we would light the orange candles—one for each night plus the ‘helper’ candle. Sometimes we would get a small gift. I remember going with my older brother Leonard one year to the 5&10¢ store to get presents for our family.

One night during the holiday the whole family would gather at my Bubbe’s home. We each got a gift. I got a paper doll cutout book one year. Wow! There were latkes and songs and dreidel games. We had a wonderful time visiting with cousins.

Every year my father would drive us to downtown D.C. to see the beautiful window displays at Woodies and Hechts. The holiday windows were, of course, all decked out for Christmas. But all we cared about were the elves, the beautiful snow scenes and the colorful boxes and toys that were displayed.

As I grew older, I realized that not everyone celebrated Chanukah; many of my friends celebrated Christmas. That was o.k. with me. We had our own holiday—Chanukah.

When I married, we had a simple chrome Menorah in place of the tin one. When our boys were old enough, they helped light the orange candles each night of Chanukah. There was a small gift most nights and a larger gift one night during the holiday. We ate latkes, we sang songs and played dreidel games. In Sunday school, the boys learned the story of the brave people who fought off the strong army, cleaned out the Temple and found enough oil to light the Menorah for one night. But a miracle happened and the oil lasted eight days, which is why we celebrate Chanukah for eight days.

Somewhere along the way, my Chanukah got misplaced. Now there are fancy Chanukias in different shapes instead of Chanukah Menorahs. There are decorations to be put up and multi-colored candles to be lit. And the gifts! The simple gifts have become large, expensive gifts. I believe we are competing with that other holiday that most of the people around us celebrate in December.

Both holidays celebrate what is believed to have been a miracle. But would it be so bad if we Jews went back to celebrate Chanukah the simple way we used to? Does Chanukah have to match or outdo Christmas? I wonder.

OPERATION PAPERBACKS FOR THE MILITARY

My name is Sandy Marron and I send paperback books to the military who are overseas, military families, veterans & VA hospitals. This organization is an all volunteer group, so any monetary donation you may make is tax deductible and is used to defray the cost of mailing the boxes of books. I get a special book rate so that is a big help.

I only take paperbacks, as hard backed are too heavy to pack and mailing is more costly. Since April 2011, I have sent out over 11,300 books. I love what I do and have been written up in newspapers as a resource for used paperbacks and donations. I can be reached by email at: slmmuscles1@aol.com with books in the subject or by phone at: 410-224-2559 after 11 a.m.

Whatever you can do for this project is very appreciated.

I am attaching a web site for Operation Paperback so you can see for yourself this wonderful organization. You may decide to be a volunteer yourself.

NA'AMAT NEWS

Ruth Reid

On Wednesday, December 3, we will have our annual card party. This is a good time to see old friends, eat delicious deserts and enjoy kugels made by our members. This always has been a successful fund-raising event. If you haven't signed up yet (with your table) contact Selma Perry (301) 598-4347.

New Year's Eve will be very special. Please join us as we go by bus to the Signature theater to see a new musical based on Barry Levinson's movie "Diner." After the show, we will go to Clubhouse I for light fare, desserts (cash bar) to ring in the new year 2015. Cost per person is $119.00. Contact JoAnn Cadeaux (301) 438-0737 for more information.

Over the years you have heard much about the day care centers and scholarships that NA'AMAT provides, but little about the NA'AMAT Glickman Center. The center is located in a leafy district of Tel Aviv. The NA'AMAT Glickman Center for the Prevention and Treatment of Violence in the family is the ONLY battered women's shelter in all of Tel Aviv. The shelter is at this time a safe haven for five women and their children, referred by the city's Department of Social Services. Renovation is now underway to accommodate five more women and their children. In addition to housing, the shelter also provides women with group therapy and legal aid. The center also provides counseling for women and men on an outpatient basis.

Feel proud that you are a member of NA'AMAT USA assisting NA'AMAT Israel in accomplishing so much good. Many times the President of NA'AMAT Israel, Galia Wolloch, has thanked us for our help, support and generosity.

The next NA'AMAT board meeting will be Tuesday, December 16, at 10:30 am in Clubhouse I.

Happy New Year to all and may all your wishes come true (at least..most of them!).

Ruth and Trudy

MT. SCOPUS HADASSAH

Barbara Eisen

On Wednesday, December 17, Cantor Michael Kravitz will present the third series of "Jewish Music in Pop Culture." His programs are always entertaining and offer new and interesting musical tidbits. In addition, Iris Tishkoff, 2014 President of the Greater Washington Chapter of Hadassah, will install the new officers for 2015, using a Hanukah theme. Socializing begins at 12:30pm and the meeting starts at 1:00pm in Clubhouse I. All Leisure World residents are welcome to attend.

The 2015 officers of Mt. Scopus are: President, Barbara Eisen; VP for Fund Raising, Faye A. Freedman; VP Committee for Programming, Faye A. Freedman; Janet Lazar, Joan Lees, and Naomi Kline, VP for Education, Joan Lees; VP for Membership, Janet Lazar; Recording Secretary, Susan Weiss; Administrative Secretary, Naomi Kline and Treasurer, Barbara Eisen.

The Mt. Scopus Judaic Study Group will meet on Monday, December 15, at 1:30 pm in Clubhouse I. New members are welcome. The group is doing a series of studies called "Parsha of the Week." For further information call Joan Lees (301-598-3768).

Carol Wendkos is our Mah Jongg Chair for the 2015 cards. This year, standard cards are $8 and large print cards are $9. Please support Hadassah by buying your cards from Carol. Make your check payable to Hadassah and indicate how many cards of which size that you wish to order. Send your check to Carol Wendkos, 14805 Pennfield Circle, #212, Silver Spring, MD 20906. Be sure to tell all your Mah Jongg friends to buy their cards from Carol. Our deadline date is January 9, 2015. If you have any questions, call Carol at 301-598-1745 or email her at carolwendkos@gmail.com.

The chapter-wide opening meeting of Hadassah will be held on Sunday, January 11, from 11 am to 1 pm at the Microsoft Building, 5405 Wisconsin Avenue, Chevy Chase. A tasting of kosher, vegan soups by Soupergirl will precede the program. Guest speakers include Rhoda Dermer, wife of Israel's Ambassador to the United States; Sarah Hurwitz, Special Assistant to President Obama; Sara Polon, Soupergirl entrepreneur and comedian and Judy Erdheim, 2015 Chapter President. The cost is $18 and must be paid by January 5 either online at www.dc.hadassah.org/openingmeeting or by mail to Hadassah, 11119 Parklawn Drive, Rockville, MD 20852. Janet Lazar (301-598-4066) will be coordinating transportation. Please let her know if you can drive or you need a ride.

RECIPE CORNER

FROSTED FRUIT SALAD

Gail Leon

As a rule, I do not usually serve gelatin type salads, but this is the exception!

6 ounce box lemon gelatin
 2 cups boiling water
 2 cups lemon-lime soda
 1 cup miniature marshmallows
 20 oz can crushed pineapple, drained, with liquid reserved for topping
 3 large bananas, sliced
 2 tablespoons flour
 ½ cup sugar
 1 cup reserved pineapple juice
 1 large egg, slightly beaten
 1 cup whipping cream
 ¼ cup grated Cheddar cheese
 3 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese

In a medium bowl, combine the gelatin with the boiling water, stirring until dissolved. Cool 10 minutes, stir in the soda and refrigerate until mixture starts to set, about 45 – 60 minutes. Fold in marshmallows, drained pineapple and bananas and place in a 9" x 13" dish. Chill until firm.

Prepare topping by cooking the flour, sugar, pineapple juice and egg in a small pan over low heat. Cook and stir continuously until mixture is thick. Remove the pan from heat and let it cool. Refrigerate topping until it is well chilled. Beat the whipping cream until stiff and fold into the chilled topping mixture. Spread the topping over the chilled gelatin mixture and sprinkle the Cheddar and Parmesan cheeses over the topping. Place salad in refrigerator and chill until serving. Serves 10 to 12.

This recipe is from my sister Sheilah Kaufman's cookbook "Simply Irresistable." I use extra cheese, cream and sugar as we love cheese. Cooking tip: Use fruit juices, 7-up or other drinks instead of water. What a difference the taste is.

(Ed. Note: Gail was kind enough to make this for me to taste. It is delicious!)

NOTICE:

Up until now, we have been happy to post the weekly activities at Har Tzeon-Agudath Achim. However, there have been comments about listing the activities of other Synagogues as well; since many of our members belong to other, nearer Synagogues. Because of these complaints, we will no longer list only activities at HTAA. If your Synagogue is having a special event, please let us know and it will appear in our Newsletter. You can e-mail Bernice Cohen at bernifc@juno.com or call 302-598-0192.

PLAN AHEAD FOR
*Peace of Mind.

WE PLAN IN ADVANCE for bar mitzvahs, weddings, retirement and many other life events. So doesn't it make sense to also plan for the inevitable?

For information on pre-planning options and special rates for Jewish Residents of Leisure World members, contact Jamie T. Arthurs at (240) 463-6884 or Jamie.Arthurs@DignityMemorial.com.

Love and Remembrance Live Forever

Come visit, and enjoy the many trees, (500+!) gardens, shrubs, art works, and other features that enhance the beauty and meaning of Judean. Our memorial counselors will help you make the right choices.
