PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is a humble and wonderful experience for me to take over the presidency of Jewish Residents of Leisure World of MD. It is an honor for this title and to follow the footsteps of past presidents. My special thanks to K. Neil Ross for making the past year so successful.

We will continue to concentrate on a few things for the coming year. Hopefully our current committee chairmen will continue doing a fantastic job. Without them we would not be as successful as we are. We are always open for new members on all of our committees. A main goal of mine is our growth in membership, headed by Sue Rudo, who does a remarkable job on recruiting. Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could increase our membership by everyone bringing in a new member and keeping Sue busy sending out welcoming letters to JRLW.

An enormous thank you to all members and committees who made our Health Expo a success, and thank you to all who attended. Please feel free to call me anytime for anything. Only all of us can be great together. I am always open to suggestions and comments, home 240-242-3742 or cell 301-318-0681 and my email mortonadavis@comcast.net.

Shalom,
Morton A. Davis

RELIGIOUS COMMITTEE JULY 2013

High Holidays:

The Religious Committee is beginning to prepare for the High Holidays which begin early this year. Erev Rosh Hashana is on September 4th. We are preparing the lists of honors, getting the tickets printed, buying flowers, arranging contracts with our Clergy and doing all the other things to assure that we have enjoyable and smooth running services.

For the Reform Services this year we have contracted with Rabbah Arlene Berger to conduct the services in the Interfaith Chapel. She will be assisted by Cantor Jim Perlmutter. Rabbah Berger is the lay leader of the Tikvat Israel Congregation and served as Educational Director at the Sixth and I Historic Synagogue, among other experiences. Cantor Jim Perlmutter has served as cantor of the Bethesda Jewish Congregation and was soloist for Schacharit High Holiday services at Tikvat Israel Congregation. We are fortunate to have Rabbah Berger and Cantor Perlmutter with us this year.

Gerry Sommer has agreed, once again, to assign the honors and to oversee the Reform Services at the Interfaith Chapel. Anyone wishing to participate in the Reform services and would like an honor should contact Gerry at 301-598-6789.

For the Conservative Services we are fortunate to once again have Rabbi Gary Fink and Cantor Mike Kravitz with us. Rabbi Fink and Cantor Kravitz have been with us for a number of years and need no introduction. They will conduct the services in the Activities Room of Club House II. Matty Feldman 301-598-4417 will chair our sub-committee, together with Eleanor Prissman and Janet Lazar, to assign the honors for the Conservative services and can be contacted with specific requests for honors and Aliyot.

Milli White 301-598-0211 has once again consented to handle the tickets for the High Holidays. Requests for tickets to Conservative or Reform services or the Break-the-Fast should be directed to her at P.O. Box 12133, Silver Spring, MD 20908. Elsewhere in the Newsletter there is a Form for requesting tickets.

Once again this year JRLW will publish a booklet to be used at Yiskor services throughout the year and will enable members to remember their loved ones who are no longer with us. To have the names of your relatives or friends inscribed in the booklet please contact Theda Rosenblum at 301-598-9105. Contact Nate Sternberg 301-598-6684 the Chairman of our sub-committee for further information.

Regular Services:

During the year we have Friday Evening services once a month that are led by Rabbi Fink who is assisted by Ed Laskin, our choir master. Conservative and Reform Services alternate each month at the Interfaith Chapel at 8:00 pm. The next service will be a Conservative service on July 5th.

Our Saturday morning services are Conservative and are led by Cantor Kravitz. Services are held in the Activities Room of Club House II at 9:15 am. The next service will be held on July 13.

For those who wish to give Tzedakah or donate prayer books contact Susan Weiss 301-460-6030 for Tzedakah or Ellen Zweig 301-598-2144 for prayer books and donations to the Torah fund.

We have lots of activities and always welcome help. Anyone who would like to get involved in our work please contact Allan Firestone 301-598-7311.

TOP BANANA OFFERS KOSHER MEALS NOW

Fred Shapiro

After discussing the possibility for the past two years with Phyllis Courlander of Top Banana, we learned something great at the Expo May 30. Top Banana now offers kosher meals for home delivery.

Long known for its services to the senior community as a home deliverer of groceries, this addition to their long list of available products serves a need for the Jewish community. Ms. Courlander can be reached at 301-340-0991 for further information and to make arrangements for your own home delivery. Top Banana has been serving local residents since 1982 and has been an exhibitor at every expo held here in Leisure World.

IT'S FOR THE BIRDS

Recently, while looking through some old sheet music I made a discovery. The late, great Oscar Hammerstein III had a lifelong fascination with things ornithological. It surfaces in most of his lyrics, with a special predilection for the lark.

To my knowledge no one has pointed this out before. My late husband used to say that I was being "picky" when I would point out something of this nature, but I say it is just my "eagle eye" which I caught from HIM!

Here are just a few examples:

Oklahoma.....a lark'll wake up in the "medder".

South Pacific.....talk about a bird singing to the sky making all the music he can make.

Sound of Music.....and the sweet, silver sound of the lark.

State Fair.....and somewhere a bird who is bound he'll be heard is throwing his heart to the sky.

There are many more, but there isn't enough space to list them all. So I started out clearing out old papers and documents and ending up with a special file for those lyrics. This is an observation and not a criticism. I came across lots of old parodies and poems. So Oscar had a liking for larks. Nothing unusual in that. Poe had his raven and Robert Louis Stevenson had his "robin with a yellow bill". So why can't Oscar have his larks? Along with the others, he is in good company.
