PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Thank you for your vote of confidence in electing me your President. I will try my best to be worthy of the honor.

As we start the new year, I know that we will continue to have stimulating programs, inspiring services and some fun activities. Our hard-working board will continue to see that everything will go smoothly and it is our hope that you, our members, will find that we have achieved our goal.

JRLW will be walking in the July 4th parade. I need to know how many of you are interested in walking the parade as representatives of JRLW. Please contact me at 301-598-0450 before July 1 if you will walk with us.

We all send out a rousing thanks to Milli White and her committee for their hard work in arranging the second Seder and to Fred Firnbacher for so ably conducting the service. It was not easy and they all did a fantastic job.

This year we are planning a trip to a National's baseball game (contact Neil Ross if you are interested) and a trip to Atlantic City this fall (contact Sue Sandler if you are interested). We will continue working with the JCC to bring us great movies and informative classes. We would love to get some suggestions from the membership for future activities.

At this time, I would like to introduce you to our Board.

Evelyn Dickman

The JRLW June Brunch will be held on Sunday, June 19, at 10:00 am, in the Clubhouse I Ballroom.

Cantor Lisa Levine of Temple Shalom will present a program of Jewish music from her many concerts in Cuba. She will tell the story through slides and music of Jewish life in Cuba. She will accompany herself on guitar, singing in Ladino, Yiddish and Hebrew.

See you at the Brunch!

HADASSAH

Barbara Eisen

Hadassah presents a Book and Author Event on Wednesday, June 15, at Clubhouse I. Michelle Brafman will speak on her novel, "Washing the Dead." This is a powerful story dealing with repairing damaged bonds between loved ones, finding community, and making peace with the past. The title of the book is a bit misleading. It is not a book that focuses on death or Jewish practices, but is an uplifting novel dealing with three generations of women whose lives traverse between the secular and orthodox Jewish communities.

The book presentation is slated for 7:30 pm. At 6:15 pm a sit-down dinner will precede the program. The cost is $21. Please mail your check, payable to Hadassah, to Caryl Rothberg, 1012 Crest Park Drive, Silver Spring, MD 20903. There is a choice of three entrees: salmon with roasted potato, eggplant parmesan with linguini marinara and fruit platter with cottage cheese. Salad, vegetable, beverage and black forest cake are included. Write your choice of entree on your check. The deadline date is June 8. Contact Caryl at 301-439-7338 or carylrothberg@yahoo.com if you have questions.

The Judaic Study Group will meet on Monday, June 20, in Clubhouse I at 1:30 pm. We invite all to attend who are interested in any aspect of Jewish studies and the relationship of Judaism to our daily lives. Please contact Peri Schuyler at 301-869-2968, or e-mail her at perislaptop@aol.com for further information.

Hadassah is again planning to march with JRLW in the Fourth of July parade. Now that we have more members, we urge every able member to march with us. If you are able to participate, please call Barbara Eisen at 301-598-8658 to let her know that you are joining us to show a strong presence for Hadassah in Leisure World.

On Wednesday, June 8, from 11:30 am to 1:00 pm at the Hadassah Greater Washington Office, Lisa Moses Leff, professor of history at American University, will speak on "Jews in France: History of a Love/Hate Relationship."

Bring a dairy or parve lunch. The cost is $10 for members or $15 for non-members. Send your check or credit card information to Hadassah Greater Washington, 11900 Parklawn Drive, Suite 350, Rockville, MD 20852. Dessert and coffee will be served. Call Janet Lazar at 301-598-4066 if you need transportation or are able to be a driver. Call the office at 301-881-8203 for further information about the program.

JRLW BRUNCH

Evelyn Dickman

The JRLW May Brunch will be sponsored by NAAMAT. The Brunch will be held on Sunday, May 15, at 10:00 am in Clubhouse I Ballroom. The speaker will be Ms. Judith Cohen, Chief Acquisitions Curator of the U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum.

Ms. Cohen will speak about the Jewish rescuers and, in particular, Ben Zion Kalb, who was involved in helping to get the Jewish people out of Slovakia during World War II. Ms. Cohen has many artifacts that she will be able to share with us.

This promises to be a very interesting and informative program.

Please mail your check, made out to JRLW, for $10.00 per person to Jerry & Shirley Gordon, 15311 Beaverbrook Court, #3A, Silver Spring, MD 20906.

NA'AMAT NEWS

Ruth Reid

NA'AMAT works on a fiscal year ending on June 30 and beginning on July 1. Therefore, we have our end of the year event in June. On June 1, we celebrate by doing a sweet "end of the year celebration." At 2:00 pm in Clubhouse I, we will enjoy desserts and then an interesting program talking about the past year. We will hear the treasurer's report, give the Woman of the Year award, hear about future plans and listen to musical entertainment.

Mark your calendars for Thursday, July 21, at 5:30 pm in the Clubhouse I Ballroom. We will have an Italian buffet feast and then be entertained by "Jacob," a young man with a big voice singing all our favorites.

On May 3, NA'AMAT USA presented Ruth Bader Ginsburg with the Golda Meir Humanitarian Award at the Supreme Court building. She was honored as a long-time champion of equal rights and justice for all.

NA'AMAT USA fund-raising helps our sisters in Israel to do many exceptional things. The latest project is sponsoring the building of a women's health center in Sderot. The facility will serve the women of that town as well as surrounding kibbutzim and will be the first of its kind in the western Negev.

The next NA'AMAT Board meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 21, at 10:30 am.

REMEMBER: THINK ISRAEL, THINK NA'AMAT

PREPLANNING FOR THE FUTURE JUDEAN GARDENS AND DIGNITY

Fred Shapiro

JRLW has working agreements with both the Judean Gardens Cemetery and the Dignity Hines-Rinaldi Funeral Home for a considerable savings when the end occurs. What our members and their families must know is that both are preplanned agreements. While there is some savings for JRLW members if death has already occurred, the savings obtained prior to need is much greater.

Judean Gardens has issued its new program for JRLW and the latest information reveals that total savings, including the burial costs and bronze markers, can amount to $1,180.00. JRLW Discount Vouchers must be presented to confirm that the purchaser is a member of JRLW. The forms are available from the JRLW mail slot in the E&R office in Clubhouse I.

Contact Jamie Arthur at Dignity to get the latest information about the engagement of funeral director services when needed. Call Jamie at 202-966-6400 or his cell phone 240-463-6884. The savings here can be considerable.

TALKING TO YOUR DOCTOR

On May 4, the Charles E. Smith Life Communities sponsored a lunch here in Leisure World. The featured speaker, Dr. Elisa Gil-Peres, gave a very informative presentation about what to consider when you speak to your doctor. Here are some of the suggestions she made:

>When you visit your doctor, bring someone with you to act as a 'second' pair of ears.

>Before your visit, write down any questions you may want to ask. We all get a little nervous going to the doctor's office and we may forget something we wanted to ask.

>Bring all of your medication bottles with you, including over-the-counter meds. Your doctor can go over each and determine which ones to continue or which ones may have interactions with other medications.

>Ask the doctor, "What are my major medical problems?" "What should I worry about?"

>Always keep an updated list of medications and the dosage of each with you in your wallet or purse. Also, along with this list, keep the name and phone number of the person to contact in case of an emergency.

>Do not underestimate the power of exercise, healthy diet and enough sleep.

>Take time to discuss with your doctor your end-of-life wishes. There is a Maryland state form, MOLST (Maryland Medical Orders for Life-Sustaining Treatment) which you should discuss with your children and go over with your doctor. Fill out and sign this form and have your primary physician sign it. Keep this document up to date with any changes. Make certain that your doctor, as well as your hospital, keeps a copy of this form in your records.
