Dear JRLW Members,

For those who have not missed last month's issue of the JRLW Newsletter please bear with me.

The publication of last year's Yizkor Book of Remembrance for use during the year 2012 -2013 was a huge success and I would like to thank all of those that participated.

Last year was the First Edition. Each year a new edition of the Yizkor Book of Remembrance will be published. This booklet will also be used throughout the entire year. We will use these books when we recite Yizkor, during Yom Kippur, Shemini Atzeret , Passover, and Shavuot Services.

We are now beginning the process of publishing the 2013-2014 edition of our Yizkor Book of Remembrance. As in the previous edition, our Yizkor Book will contain the appropriate prayers and topical readings, which we normally use in our services.

The new edition will continue to allow our members and friends to list the names of our loved ones who are no longer with us and enable us to memorialize them.

This year there will be enough books published to allow us to keep our own copy for use throughout the year.

I trust that this year's edition will be even more successful than last year's and will give those members who were not able to participate last year a chance to remember our dearly departed.

Please support JRLW in this effort. A form is included in this Newsletter for you to complete. Please follow the instructions listed on the form.

Best wishes for the New Year 5774,

K. Neil Ross, President

JRLW PRESENTS A CONCERT OF LITHUANIAN AND JEWISH MUSIC

By Fred Shapiro, JRLW Community Liaison

JRLW is partnering with the Sunflower Project to present a concert of Lithuanian classical and Jewish popular music June 25 at 2:00 pm in the Clubhouse II auditorium. The concert will feature renown musician Golda Vainberg–Tatz at the piano, Cantor Kim Komrad as the vocalist and George Peachey on the piano. Golda will perform classical selections on the piano and Cantor Komrad will sing Hebrew and Yiddish melodies. Admission is a $10.00 donation, payable to JRLW. Tickets are available in the E&R office. Refreshments will be served after the concert.

Golda Vainberg–Tatz has been described as “a pianist with wonderful firm, clear touch” by the New York Times.

Hazzan Kim Komrad presently serves Kehilat Shalom Congregation in Gaithersburg, MD. Hazzan Komrad's vocal training was in classical voice and opera at the University of Miami, FL. Her rich soprano voice has delighted congregational and secular audiences alike.

Pianist George Peachey has enjoyed a varied career as a vocal and instrumental collaborative artist, and as soloist both in recital and with orchestra. Critics have called him “an exemplary accompanist” who plays with “sensitive expertise.”

The mission of the Jewish Lithuanian Heritage Project is to create rebridging between the Lithuanian and Jewish peoples, as there is a rich history that existed prior to 1941.

GOOD AND WELFARE

Dr. Michael Yaffe, son of Sylvia and Ted Yaffe, nephew of Bernice Cohen, was one of the trauma surgeons who operated on the survivors of the Boston bombings. He is truly one of the heroes of that terrible disaster.

As of this writing, Al Rosenthal is in Bedford Court Rehab following a brief hospitalization. He will be there at least a few more weeks.

Eleanor Rothenberg had a nasty fall in her apartment. We hope that by the time of this printing, she is feeling much better.

Congratulations to the officers of JRLW for the coming year, 2013-2014. Good luck in the coming year.

We are thinking of Phyllis Hutt and sending our best wishes for continued improvement.

Sandra Marcus is doing well following surgery.

A big Thank You to Stan Hertzbach and Coleman Leifer for restarting the JRLW website. The JRLW web site is <http://jrlw.info> You can see copies of the JRLW Newsletter at this site.

Coming of Age in Maryland (CoA) is proud to partner and serve the Jewish Residents of Leisure World. We have maintained our unique relationship for many years and look forward to a fifth year of bringing our programs and services to Leisure World and the community at large. As we get ready to commence again in July, I would like to review some of the exciting activities we have offered over the past year and thank you for your continued participation and referrals. We are delighted that in no small part due to your help, we had a total of 198 new participants this past year.

Over the last 12 months, CoA hosted 40 events with the goal of offering a variety of venues and opportunities designed as places for you to meet up with current friends and create new ones. As the COA social worker, I was available as a free community resource to offer support during difficult times and help with identifying community services and resources. Together, hundreds here at Leisure World attended movies followed by lively discussions, exercise classes, special entertainment events at Day @ the Ring, kosher lunches and international dining experiences at local restaurants. We enjoyed speakers, concerts and shows including La Boheme, Hello Dolly, and Cabaret with our very own Frieda Enoch as a very talented cast member! And let's not forget the marvelous "To Life Expo" organized by the JCCGW. What a fun, diverse and energetic roster of programs – just wait for next year!

Frieda, Melanie, Meryl and I look forward to being with you ALL throughout the next 12 months. Thank you for your participation!
