PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We are getting ready to start a new administrative year with the same President still trying hard to make JRLW a great organization. I am looking forward to working with all of our officers, board members and committee chairpersons.

The attendance at our Friday evening Services and Saturday morning Shabbat Services has been good. Our High Holiday Services were a sell-out.

Our brunches, day trips, movies, EXPO, classes and speakers were all well received. Many thanks to everyone who helped to make this a great year.

Now, we need members to come forth and join a committee. Please call me at 240-242-3742.

Please call Evelyn Dickman 301-598- 8228 or Sue Sandler 240-242-3742 for reservations to visit the US Naval Academy at Annapolis on July 11, 2014. The Friday night service will be followed by a wonderful Oneg reception. We have chartered a bus, so reservations are a must.

Remember T.E.A.M. means TOGETHER EVERYONE ACHIEVES MORE

Happy Father's Day

Have a safe and wonderful summer.

Shalom,

Morton A. Davis

A PASSOVER TALE

Ralph Shapiro

Ralph and Ecille Shapiro had reservations to join the Jewish Residents of Leisure World Second Seder on Tuesday, April 15.

Ecille had been scheduled to undergo aortic valve replacement surgery after Passover. However, the surgery had to be moved up to the Wednesday following the Seder. Ecille was uncomfortable enough about the impending surgery not to attend the Seder. So they had a Seder for two at their home.

Being the youngest at the Seder and, coincidentally, being the youngest in their respective families, they were obligated to ask the Four Questions and they each did. As a result they probably set the world record for the oldest boy (he at 90) and the oldest girl (she at 85) to ask the Four Questions.

Ecille (Cille) had the surgery and is recovering at home nicely as of this writing.

Movie Matinee: “The Other Son”

Where: Clubhouse II

When: Tuesday, June 24, 1:30 pm

Fee: $6 check payable to JRLW at E&R

The Other Son is the moving and provocative tale of two young men--one Israeli, the other Palestinian who discover they were accidentally switched at birth. What ensues is the touching story of the complex repercussions facing them and their respective families. Joseph is an 18 year old musician hoping to join the Israeli Air Force though his real passion is to become a folk singer.

He and his parents live in a comfortable suburb of Tel Aviv and all seems fine until a blood test for Joseph’s military service reveals that he’s not, in fact, their biological son.

An investigation by the hospital where Joseph was born at the time of a bombing attack the night he was born, indicated that Joseph and another baby were taken to shelters and switched by mistake. The other family is Palestinian. Their baby, Yacine Al Bezaaz (Mehdi Dehbi), was born on the same night.

The story continues with an Israeli-Palestinian conflict in which both fathers are reluctant to accept the situation while the mothers are friendly to the idea of getting close to their real children. As both boys become friends, their families are forced to reevaluate their beliefs and resistance to the adjacent cultures. Where were the bouquets of flowers laid at the site of the shootings as we had seen in the other terrible events?

RECIPE CORNER

Remember the “dump cake” we used to make? Here is an easy recipe for one.

1/3 cup chopped nuts, if desired

THE FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION RULES AGAINST PROPOSED FUNERAL SERVICES MERGER

The proposed merger of Stewart Enterprises, Inc. and Service Corporation International was of very real concern to the Jewish community of the Washington D.C. area. Had the acquisition been allowed, it would have essentially eliminated any competition between the local funeral homes. This might have resulted in large increases in the prices of funeral services. That is why the final ruling by the Federal Trade Commission is so important.

Following a public comment period, in which over 4,000 letters and e-mails were submitted from the Jewish community, the Federal Trade Commission has approved a final order settling charges that Service Corporation International's (SCI) acquisition of Stewart Enterprises, Inc. (SEI) was anticompetitive in 59 local funeral services and cemetery markets throughout the United States.

The Jewish Funeral Practices Committee of Greater Washington (JFPC) and the Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Washington (JCRC) are pleased with the action forcing SCI to give up Sagel Funeral Direction, thus preventing SCI from having a full monopoly of Jewish funeral services in Montgomery County. As a result, Ed Sagel, now unaffiliated with SCI, bought both Danzansky and Sagel funeral homes from SCI as a package. The resulting funeral home is now an independent competitor in selling funeral services to the Jewish public.

"This victory for the Jewish community shows what we accomplish when we work together towards a common goal," said Ron Halber, Executive Director of the JCRC.

SUMMER MONTHS AND TORAH STUDY WITH RABBIS TOPOLOSKY AND LEIGH

by Fred Shapiro

With most regular activities coming to a halt after May, JRLW has arranged to sponsor Torah study sessions in June and July, featuring Rabbi Uri Topolosky, Rabbi of the Beth Joshua Congregation and the Berman Academy in Aspen Hill, and Rabbi Shmuel Leigh of the Golden Network. Both Rabbis have conducted well-received Torah study classes here for JRLW.

The Torah study sessions will take place on Mondays at 2:00 pm in the Annapolis room in Clubhouse I. Rabbi Topolosky will join us June 9. Rabbi Leigh will be here June 23 and July 21.

There is no fee for attending the Torah Study Group session and all are invited to not only attend, but take part in the discussion that accompanies the lecture.

The topic of each session will be based on the Sedrah of the week, with not only a historic religious interpretation but also in how each of the teachings of the Torah applies to our modern day lives.

Those of you who have attended earlier Torah study sessions by both Rabbis have requested that we bring them back..

Efforts are being made for additional sessions with participation by other Rabbis in the area. These will be announced in future editions of the Newsletter and in the LW News.

NA'AMAT NEWS

Ruth Reid

June 30 is the close of the fiscal year for Na'Amat. July 1 begins a new year; so happy fiscal new year to all of you!

On Wednesday, June 4, at 12:30 pm in Clubhouse I we will have our "end of the year" meeting/celebration. At that time, we will have the annual report and also present the "woman of the year" award. As always, the recipient is acknowledged for her long time dedication to Na'Amat

As a special treat we will have a trio "Free Association" play music such as folk, country and rock; all easy listening and all very enjoyable. We will also have a lovely, delicious dessert table. Plan to come to the meeting. Bring friends and enjoy.

We have two summer events planned; one in July and one in August. Look for further information and fliers about these events.

Also, it is important that you read our column in the Leisure World News. Our reporters Althea and Carole do a great job getting the information out to you.

The June board meeting will be on Tuesday, June 24 at 10:30 am in Clubhouse I.

Our support and work with our sister organization Na'Amat Israel enhances the quality of life for all Israeli citizens. It is important that we keep this in mind when we contribute our time, energy and money.

THINK NA'AMAT, THINK ISRAEL!

MEMORIAL DAY (Revisited)

In the May issue of our Newsletter, we reminded people to thank a friend or relative who had or who is serving in the U.S. Military. Memorial Day was originally observed to honor those who gave their lives while serving their Country. Since World War II, the traditional observance has been changed to honor both the dead and those men and women who have been or who are currently serving in the Military.

We do not need a special day to remember our loved ones who made the ultimate sacrifice for our Country. We honor them and we need to thank those who have served or who are currently serving in the U.S. Military.

JULY 4TH CELEBRATION

Walter Budman

Leisure World will again celebrate Independence Day on Friday, July 4, 2014 with a short parade and a patriotic program. Members of JRLW and other Jewish organizations in LW are invited to come out and enjoy the fun and camaraderie.

Those interested in marching in the short parade should arrive by 9:00 A. M. and look for the JRLW banner in the Club House I parking lot.

For further information contact Walter Budman, 301-438-1264
