PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is now a year since I assumed the office of President, and it gratifies me that the year has been quite successful. Naturally there are those bumps in the road that prohibit a perfect year. I would like to start off by thanking my Board of Directors and all the volunteers who worked tirelessly during the year to bring you the many functions and services that have been offered.

Some of the many accomplishments during the past 12 months have been our Sunday brunches with excellent programs and 50/50 drawings thanks to Sheila Chodorov. Our Newsletter contains advertisements that have dramatically cut the costs of publication. When you use the advertisers' services or products you should mention their ads. This will help insure their continued support. One of the events I am proud of was our Passover Seder, one of most successful Seders based on the many compliments I received from the 200 people who attended. There was plenty to eat and drink and the Seder service was well performed. Ed Richardson outdid himself in both the food as well as the wait service.

Our education programs that included the Coming of Age (CoA) and Adult Center for Education (ACE) were well received. These programs and courses have proven to be very popular not only to our members but also to non-members. Our travel program included the planning of two trips to see the Washington Nationals play baseball. Our first trip saw the Nationals victorious and here is hoping our next trip on June 4 will also see the Nats win.

A crowning achievement was the publication of our first Yizkor Book, which brought in enough revenue to avoid raising the cost of the High Holiday tickets. We are now publishing our second edition. We hope you will be generous in your support. The proceeds from the Yizkor Book help to fund our religious programs which are costly.

I would like to take this opportunity to request additional volunteers to assist us in putting on our Friday Night and Saturday Morning Services. Our Religious Committee is shorthanded and we need people to keep our services ongoing. We need people to help produce our Newsletter. It takes a lot of people to run our organization. Considering the size of our membership, we should have an abundance of volunteers to maintain our high level of activities. Remember, we are only as good as our participating membership. Our Annual Meeting will be held on May 21 in the Maryland Room of Clubhouse I at 7:00 pm. Please plan to attend.

Thank you,
K. Neil Ross

MEMBERSHIP DUES RENEWAL (June 1 – May 31)

Dear Member,

Jewish Residents of Leisure World (JRLW) offers many opportunities for involvement. It is that time again to renew your membership dues. The dues year runs from June 1 through May 31. Membership dues are $20 per person; $40 for a couple. The cost for the Singles Club are $12. Dues should be sent to the Post Office Box and made out to JRLW.

JRLW conducts services for both Reform or Conservative services the first Friday of the month followed by an Oneg Shabbat. Conservative services are conducted the 2nd Saturday of each month followed by a kiddush. We sponsor services for the High Holy Days and the 2nd Seder. A brunch is held the 3rd Sunday of each month with an interesting speaker. The cost for the brunch is $14 for members and $16 for non-members. There are also various classes of Jewish interest. Education courses are mentioned in our monthly newsletter and the Leisure World Newspaper. The charges are so noted. There are many other phases of JRLW which might whet your appetite. Please see our website and learn more about JRLW at jrlw.info.

If you have any questions, I would be very happy to speak with you. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Sue A. Rudo, Membership Chair, 301-598-1153 suearudo@verizon.net

GOOD AND WELFARE

Selma and Stanley Warsaw are enjoying a shower of nachus. Not only is their granddaughter Madison graduating from high school with a four-year scholarship to the University of Michigan, but they have other good news as well: Their granddaughter Courtney Warsaw, who is living in New York, has become engaged to Marcus Fagel. A February wedding is being planned. They also have a triple simcha coming up. Granddaughters Hailey, Anna and Avery Warsaw of Michigan, will have a triple Bat Mitzvah in June! Theirs will be the first triple Bat Mitzvah ever held in their synagogue. Mazel Tov to Selma and Stanley.

We send our special wishes to Bea Seidner on her special birthday.

We are sorry to learn about Milt Loube's hospitalization. Milt, we hope you will soon be feeling better.

Eva Burger is recuperating from a nasty fall. She is currently in Bedford Court. We wish her a speedy recovery.

We are happy to see that Harriet Mandell is making a nice recovery from hip replacement.

Florence and Izzy Wolfe are quelling. Their grandson Ben Lurye is in the current production of "Hello Dolly" now at the Ford's Theater. Ben is going places in the theater!

Brady Newell, granddaughter of Evelyn Sherman, who is a freshman at the University of South Carolina will be taking the Birthright Trip to Israel this summer. Brady has also received the honor of a scholarship to attend the North American Leadership Conference. Mazel Tov to Evelyn and her family.

MAY RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Friday, May 3, 8:00 pm – Friday Evening Conservative Services sponsored by Na'Amat led by Rabbi Gary Fink. Interfaith Chapel.

Saturday May 11 – Shabbat Services conducted by Cantor Michael Kravitz. Clubhouse II, 9:15 am. Haftorah : Sidney Sasson; D'Var Torah: Rabbi Moshe Samber.

Thursday, May 16 – Shavuot Services at 9:15 am. Clubhouse II. Yizkor will be recited.

Shavuot / שבועות

The festival of Shavuot is a Jewish holiday that occurs on the sixth day of the Hebrew month of Sivan. Shavuot commemorates the anniversary of the day God gave the Torah to the entire Israelite nation assembled at Mount Sinai, although the association between the giving of the Torah and Shavuot is not explicit in the Biblical text. The holiday is one of the three Biblical pilgrimage festivals. It marks the conclusion of the Counting of the Omer.

We observe the holiday of Shavuot for two days. Yizkor is recited during services on the second day.

Traditionally, dairy foods are eaten on this holiday.

NEW MEMBERS

We welcome the following new members into JRLW. Anita and Larry Sperling, 15301 Wallbrook Court.

Adele Kistner, 3005 S. LWB.

Susan and Daniel Lerner, 3510 Forest Edge Dr.

JEWISH WAR VETERANS

The Jewish War Veterans are sponsoring a trip to Harrington's Casino in Delaware.

The trip will be on Tuesday, May 21, 2013. The bus will leave Clubhouse II at 10:00 am and return at about 6:00 pm. The cost for this outing is $25.00 per person. It includes $10.00 slot play and a free buffet.

If you are interested in joining us, call Marvin Franklin at 301-598-9372. Checks should be made out to JWV and mailed to Marvin Franklin, 3200 N. Leisure World Blvd., #709, Silver Spring, MD 20906.

JRLW AND THE SUNFLOWER PROJECT PRESENT AN AFTERNOON OF LITHUANIAN AND JEWISH MUSIC

Fred Shapiro, JRLW Community Liaison

The March concert which had to be postponed due to the bad weather, has been rescheduled for Tuesday, June 25 at 2:00 pm in the Clubhouse II auditorium. In addition to renown musician Golda Vainberg-Tatz at the piano, the concert will also feature Cantor Kim Komrad, vocalist, and George Peachey. While Golda will perform classical selections on the piano, Cantor Komrad will sing Hebrew and Yiddish melodies, accompanied by Peachey on the piano.

The concert is co-sponsored by the Jewish Residents of Leisure World and the Sunflower Project. Refreshments will be served after the concert. Admission is a $10.00 donation, payable to JRLW. Tickets are available in the E&R office.

Golda Vainberg-Tatz has been described as “a pianist with wonderful firm, clear touch” by the New York Times. She has performed throughout Europe, Israel and U.S. and appeared on many radio and television broadcasts in Europe.

Hazzan Kim Komrad presently serves Kehilat Shalom Congregation in Gaithersburg, MD. She is the first female Hazzan to hold a pulpit in a Conservative Synagogue in the history of the Batimore-Washington area. In 2005 Komrad appeared with Hazzanim Sol Zim and Alberto Mizrahi for the International Cantorial Foundation, at the Center for the Performing Arts in Chicago.

Pianist George Peachey has enjoyed a varied career as a vocal and instrumental collaborative artist, and as soloist both in recital and with orchestra.

Critics have called him “an exemplary accompanist” who plays with “sensitive expertise.”

The Sunflower Project, falls under the auspices of the Jewish Lithuanian Heritage Project, whose mission is to create rebridging between the Lithuanian and Jewish peoples, as there is a rich history that existed prior to 1941.

JRLW IS GOING TO THE BASEBALL GAME !

JRLW is sponsoring a bus trip to a National's baseball game on June 4 at a cost of $51 per person. Washington Nationals vs NY Mets. This is a night game with easy access to an elevator to your seat. Bus will depart Clubhouse II @ 4:30 p.m. and return after the game. Great seats along first baseline. Our last ball game sold out immediately so do not delay if you wish to go. Contact Sue Sandler at 240-242-3742 for information and reservations. Make checks out to JRLW.

GO NATS !!!

Dear JRLW members,

The publication of last year's Yizkor Book of Remembrance for use during the years 2012 -2013, was a huge success and I would like to thank all of those that participated.

Last year was the First Edition. Each year a new Edition of the Yizkor Book of Remembrance will be published. This booklet will also be used throughout the entire year. We will use these books when we recite Yizkor, during Yom Kippur, Passover, Shavuot and Shemini Atzeret Services.

We are now beginning the process of publishing the 2013-2014 Edition of our Yizkor Book of Remembrance. As in the previous edition, our Yizkor Book will contain the appropriate prayers and topical readings, which we normally use in our services.

The new edition will continue to allow our members and friends to list the names of our loved ones who are no longer with us and enable us to memorialize them.

This year, there will be enough books published to allow us to keep our own copy for use throughout the year.

I trust that this year's edition will be even more successful than last year's and will give those members who were not able to participate last year a chance to remember our dearly departed.

Please support JRLW in this effort. A form is included in this Newsletter for you to complete. Please follow the instructions listed on the form.

Best wishes for the New Year 5744

K. Neil Ross, President

ANNUAL BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE YIZKOR MEMORIAL 2013-2014, 5774

The "JRLW Book of Remembrance" is providing an opportunity for individuals to honor the memories of beloved relatives, friends and other persons who are no longer with us. A new booklet will be distributed each year on Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. The book will include the names of the donors along with the names of the departed, whom we wish to remember. The complete Memorial Service will also be included in the book, so it may be used on the three other occasions when we recite Yizkor.

JRLW needs your support. This year, it is requested members contribute $6.00 for each departed name listed below. Donations should be included with your application.

Our deadline for your donation is July 1, 2013.

Please complete the application below. The names should be listed in the order you wish them to appear in this year's Memorial Book. Additional Departed names can be added on the back of this form. PLEASE DO NOT CUT UP THIS FORM.

What's Cooking in the Kitchen?

Rae Paley
My daughter Joy's recipe

Description

Chicken and vegetables roasted with a rosemary, balsamic vinegar marinade.

Ingredients

- 1/3 cup olive oil
- 1/3 cup balsamic vinegar
- 1 tablespoon dried rosemary
- 1/2 teaspoon crushed red pepper flakes
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 4 skinless, boneless chicken breasts
- 1 green bell pepper, sliced
- 1 red bell pepper, sliced
- 1 small red onion, quartered
- 3 carrots, cut into 1 inch pieces
- 1 eggplant, cut into 1/2 inch cubes

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Line a cookie sheet with aluminum foil, and coat with cooking spray.
2. In a large bowl, combine olive oil, balsamic vinegar, rosemary, red pepper flakes, and garlic. Place chicken in the bowl, and marinate 5 minutes. Transfer to a baking dish, reserving marinade in the bowl.
3. Place sliced green bell pepper, red bell pepper, red onion, carrots, and eggplant in the marinade, and toss to coat. Arrange in a single layer on the cookie sheet.
4. Place the chicken and vegetables in the preheated oven. Bake chicken for 20 minutes, or until juices run clear. Bake the vegetables for 35 minutes, or until the edges of the vegetables brown.

Friendships That Span the Ages
by Beth Shapiro, LCSW-C
JSSA Senior Services
301-816-2665

I was recently talking about friendship with someone. She was explaining how she felt about her friendships and said, "People are in need but don't want to look like they are in need, like me." She explained her experiences and the difficulties she was having making and keeping friendships as an older adult. Not only do we often shy away from admitting feelings like these to others, but often, because it's painful, we don't want to admit them to ourselves.

Where did your friendships start? How have they been sustained over the years? As children we made friends at school and our neighborhood. Then we raised families, had careers and found different opportunities to make new friends. It wasn't always easy, but the potential was there. As we age, this potential changes. The people we know start to move away or their health declines making it harder for us to connect. And starting over is hard.

I'm realizing the importance of friendships that span different age ranges. I am also realizing that perhaps we need to broaden our horizons to include new ways and new conversations to initiate friendships that we hadn't considered before. In this way we open the door for others to walk in and say 'hello.' As A.A. Milne wrote, "You can't stay in your corner of the forest waiting for others to come to you. You have to go to them sometimes." Feel free to call me if you are struggling with friendships, maybe I can help.

WE GET LETTERS !

I would like to thank all the wonderful members of JRLW for their caring and for the good meals that were brought in to me following my surgery. I am certain that such good friends speeded my recovery.

MT. SCOPUS HADASSAH

The Greater Washington Hadassah Chapter will hold a Walkathon to defeat neuromuscular diseases on Sunday, May 5 at Brookside Gardens from 9:00am to noon. A virtual Ms. Mt. Scopus will be walking for our group. Everyone is encouraged to sponsor our designated walker by sending your donation in any amount to Barbara Eisen, 3200 N. Leisure World Blvd. #810, Silver Spring, MD 20906, by May 1. Please donate to enable Hadassah researchers to develop cures for conditions such as Parkinson's Disease, Muscular Dystrophy, Cerebral Palsy, Alzheimer's and Multiple Sclerosis.

The Mt. Scopus Judaic Study Group will meet on May 20 at 1:30 pm in Clubhouse I. The group will be exploring Wisdom literature. For further information call Joan Lees (301-598-3768).

At our May 22 meeting in Clubhouse I, Mike Bloom will speak on "The Origins of Jewish Food." Socializing begins at 12:30 pm and the meeting starts at 1:00 pm in Clubhouse I. All residents are welcome to attend.

Our Nominating Committee has proposed the following slate of officers for our election on May 22: Co-Presidents – Barbara Eisen and Joan Lees, Education Vice President – Joan Lees, Membership Vice President – Janet Lazar, Fundraising Vice President – Susan Klein, Program Vice President Committee – Barbara Eisen, Faye A. Freedman, Janet Lazar, and Joan Lees, Recording Secretary – Susan Weiss, Administrative Secretary – Naomi Kline, and Treasurer – Barbara Eisen. Nominations from the floor will be accepted.

We are still looking for a hospitality chair, who is willing to shop for refreshments and store our refreshment supplies. There is a committee to help with setting up the refreshments and doing the cleanup. If you are willing to step up to this position, please call Barbara Eisen (301-598-8658).

NA'AMAT NEWS

Ruth Reid

The merry month of May is when Na'Amat shines.

Na'Amat will sponsor the Friday Evening Services on May 3. Following the Services at the Interfaith Chapel Na'Amat will sponsor the Oneg.

The Na'Amat Board will meet on Tuesday, May 14, at 10:30 am, in Clubhouse I.

On Sunday morning, May 19, at the JRLW breakfast we will provide a most interesting guest speaker, Daniel Mann. Mr. Mann played a very significant role in helping to liberate the Jews of the Soviet Union. He will talk about that and many other activities he has been involved with over the years.

On Tuesday, May 21, at the Manor Country Club, we will have our annual Donor/Installation Luncheon. Our entertainment will be the "Classy Jazz Quartet" with vocalist Charlene Cochran.

When you think Israel, think buying Israeli products. Quoting Eli Groner, Minister of Economic Affairs at the Israeli Embassy in Washington DC, "People want to give business to their friends and neighbors and Israel is a part of the Jewish neighborhood." But most of all, he says, "Buyers are interested in quality and Israeli products are of high quality." So, look for the label Made in Israel!
