PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The last message I wrote was while I was sitting in Florida avoiding the snow in Maryland. How lucky am I? This time I am on an airplane coming home from California after attending the Bar Mitzvah of Sue's grandson, Jeremy.

A funny thing happened on the way to California. I arrived at the terminal in Baltimore only to hear someone calling my name. It was Neil Ross who was headed to California also. Needless to say, we sat together. Sue was thrilled she could play with her iPad the entire flight and not be bothered with the two of us. Neil and I discussed JRLW and all the wonderful activities we can have and all we really need is you.

Many activities have been scheduled for the next few months. We are looking forward to going to the Washington Nats game on May 19. Neil has tickets if you are interested in going. The price is $52.00 and includes bus and good seats. We have the Health Fair Expo in May, a Sunday morning brunch, our yearly meeting and many more activities. Let's not forget to support our umbrella organizations: Na'Amat, Hadassah and Jewish War Veterans.

Many thanks to Fred Shapiro and his nominating committee for bringing us a great slate. We will be voting on this at our May meeting.

Hope your Passover Seders were good.

I saw a sign in California and I want to share it with you:

*We don't want seniors to break their hip,
But we do want seniors that are hip!*

Shalom, Morton A. Davis

RELIGIOUS COMMITTEE

Allan Firestone 301-598-7311

By the time this issue of the Newsletter appears, Passover will be over and we will have celebrated the communal Second Seder led, as in the past, by Fred Firnbacher. Gail Leon worked very hard as Chair of this event. In addition, we will also have observed the Yizkor services lead by Cantor Michael Kravitz.

Now that the Passover holiday is over we have to begin work on our High Holidays. We are fortunate to have Nate Sternberg chair our committee that will work on publishing our new Yizkor booklet. Our May and June newsletters contain the application form for listing our departed family members.

Matty Feldman and Janet Lazar will be in charge of assigning High Holiday honors for the Conservative Services while Gerry Sommer assigns the High Holiday honors for the Reform Services. The May and June Newsletters include the application for the High Holiday tickets. Members of JRLW will have an opportunity to express their interest in participating in the services. Matty or Janet can be contacted with expressions of interest in Conservative services and Gerry can be contacted for the Reform services.

Sue Rudo and Neal Ross have been working on replacement of our Reform prayer books. Unfortunately, they will not be available until 2015 at the earliest. In the meantime, Sue will ensure that we have one edition of our current Reform prayer books.

As always, we need some help with the set-up and tear-down of the Interfaith Chapel for our Friday night services.

Last, but not least, courtesy of Rabbi Warshaw of Congregation Bat Yam, we have been working with a Scribe who is helping us to acquire a light weight Torah of approximately 14-15 pounds. We hope to have a new Torah in time for the High Holidays to enable more members of JRLW to accept the Hagba honor.

We have a lot of work ahead of us and any one interested in becoming a member of the Religious committee and helping us, please contact me.

JRLW SECOND SEDER

The JRLW Second Seder held on April 15 this year was a success. The room looked lovely with blue and white flower centerpieces on each table. The dinner was kosher. The delicious chocolate dessert and fresh fruit cup completed the meal.

There were young children to ask the Four Questions. The evening was full of responsive readings and singing. Families and friends socialized between the Seder services.

There was a capacity crowd. Gail Leon and Fred Firnbacher worked hard to make this affair a success. Our thanks to them. See you at our Second Seder next year!

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THIS PICTURE?

Editorial by Bernice Cohen

What is wrong with this picture? On erev Passover 2014 a man shot randomly at the Jewish Community Center in Overland Park, a suburb of Kansas City, and also at a Jewish Senior Citizen facility. Here is what I think is wrong with this picture. First, there was no picture either in our newspapers or on the television news of these incidents. If this shooting had taken place outside of a church, a Mosque or, God forbid, outside of an elementary school like Sandy Hook, the news would be splattered with photographs of the place and of people who had heard or who had seen the action.

Secondly, the story was buried in a small article on page 3 of the Washington Post. No biggie? I happened to see a news conference given by the officials in Overland Park. They were not sure whether or not this was a hate crime. Not sure? This man had been a former Grand Dragon of the KKK! He has a criminal record and is a known anti-Semite. He was a known Nazi sympathizer. And they weren't sure?

Where was the public outcry about the shootings? Why were the reporters silent for the most part? Where were the bouquets of flowers laid at the site of the shootings as we had seen in the other terrible events?

The Jewish Federation of Greater Washington and the Jewish Community Relations Council of Greater Washington issued the following statement:

"Our thoughts and prayers are with the families of the victims and the entire Greater Kansas City Jewish Community after yesterday's horrific violence in Overland Park, Kansas. This was a senseless, cowardly attack, clearly motivated by hatred towards Jews which left three innocent people dead – including a grandfather and his grandson, both of whom were Christian.

We urge law enforcement authorities to prosecute the individual(s) responsible for this attack to the fullest extent of the law to send a message that violence, especially hatred-inspired violence, has no place in America."

Our Jewish Federation was spot-on in its evaluation of what had taken place in Overland Park. What will it take to make us wake up to the current spate of hate crimes? If this man had a criminal history, how come he had a gun?

As I sit here typing there is a memorial broadcast of the Boston Marathon incident on the television. Can't we hope for some of the same indignation and public sorrow when a Jewish Community Center is the object of a demented person's actions? Is a Jew a little less of a human being? Is a Jew's worth a little less than a non-Jew?

What is wrong with this picture?

The Other Son is the moving and provocative tale of two young men--one Israeli, the other Palestinian who discover they were accidentally switched at birth. What ensues is the touching story of the complex repercussions facing them and their respective families. Joseph is an 18 year old musician hoping to join the Israeli air force, though his real passion is to become a folk singer.

He and his parents live in a comfortable suburb of Tel Aviv and all seems fine until a blood test for Joseph's military service reveals that he's not, in fact, their biological son.

The program will take place May 14 at 7:00 pm in the Clubhouse II Auditorium. In addition to the keynote speaker Reuven Azar, Deputy Head of Mission, Embassy of Israel-Washington DC, the attendees will be delighted by the performance of Andrea Hancock, professionally known as Seniorita Sunshine. Following the program, we will enjoy refreshments courtesy of Aspenwood Senior Living. Tickets by check made out to JRLW for $18.00/person can be purchased at the E&R office. Proceeds will be donated to the Jewish National Fund for the critically needed water projects in Israel and the Mideast.

Andrea Hancock is a cabaret-style performer entertaining seniors and active adults. She will be singing songs from Israel and her Jewish background as well as some of the lively tunes from her regular routine. She uses the power of popular music from the 1930's through the 1970's to bring back memories of the good ol' days.

Reuven Azar commenced service at the Embassy in January 2014. Prior to this assignment, he was head of the Middle East Bureau, Policy Research Center, MFA, Jerusalem. His extensive experience representing Israel provides him with a broad background from which to relate the pressures that the State of Israel faces today.

The program is co-sponsored by the Jewish Residents of Leisure World, Hadassah, Na'Amat, the Jewish War Veterans and the Jewish Friendship Group.

IRV GOLDBERG, A JRLW LEADER TO BE REMEMBERED

Fred Shapiro

It is with sadness that I write of the death of one of the dearest and valued members of the Jewish Residents of Leisure World -- Irv Goldberg died almost in reach of 100 years.

The funeral was held Sunday, March 30, in King David Cemetery. Cantor Mike Kravitz, a long time friend of Irv, officiated.

Irv was the religious backbone of JRLW for many years before I arrived in LW in 2003. I have to tell you that through trying times he was always at my side, supporting me as we made changes to bring us back to a more observant Judaism. Irv had been the chairman of the Religious Committee for many years and was instrumental in providing JRLW members with services, Torah study sessions and a sense of being Jewish.

In his later years, housebound and isolated after the death of his wife, arrangements were made to have Rabbi Shmuel Leigh visit with Irv to discuss Torah and Talmud. Although he was a pharmacist by trade, I always envisioned Irv as wanting to be a Rabbi. This was confirmed by his son David. Irv enjoyed nothing as much as a lively discussion of the sedrah of the week or the interpretations described in the Talmud.

A favorite anecdote of what Irv was like took place with my first meeting with him in our apartment. His opening comment was, "Fred, I have a large ego; it's tough to be second fiddle." But that ego never stood in the way of helping him achieve things for the benefit of the members of JRLW.

He will be sorely missed by those of us who had the pleasure of his company.

LEISURE WORLD TO HOST FIFTH HEALTH AND WELLNESS EXPO CO-SPONSORED BY JRLW AND THE JCCGW/COMING OF AGE

Fred Shapiro

A lot of energy is being exerted to bring together the exhibitors, entertainers, medical screenings and workshops for the Expo to be held May 22 in Clubhouse I Ballroom from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm. There is no admission fee to attend the Expo.

Two of the major events will be the keynote speaker, Dr. Malid Fotuhi, MD , PhD, the founder and Chief Medical Officer of NeurExpand; the closing performance will be by the CAPITOL STEPS.

Dr. Fotuhi is considered one of the world's foremost brain experts and an authority on memory and aging. His talk will help to highlight what a senior should do to retain memory, as well as signs that help is needed as memory fades.

THE CAPITOL STEPS marry music, politics and satire to bring humor and song into their interpretation of the political world in which we live. The Capitol Steps are always fresh and crispy right from the headlines! They put the "Mock" in Democracy! Space is limited, so free tickets will be required and available on site.

There will be three workshops to both educate and entertain. Although there is no charge, register for the workshops you want to attend in the E&R office.

1. Joan Hart, an art historian who runs Museum One, Inc., an arts outreach service, will bring to life Mary Cassatt, one of the greatest impressionist artists of the last 200 years.

2. MedStar: Your "Arch" Enemy: Education on good foot care. Maintaining proper foot care is a necessity for good overall health. Your feet are probably the last part of your body you think about until they start hurting. Take the time to give your feet some tender, loving care!

3. Sheila Kaufman: Fast and Fuss-less cooking to include samples. She will tell us how to make cooking easy and fun! Ms Kaufman is an award winning author of 26 cookbooks, cooking instructor, culinary lecturer and food editor for over 40 years.

In addition to the 50 exhibitors in the Ballroom, preventive health screenings will take place by staffs of a number of the hospitals in the area, spearheaded by Leisure World's own MedStar team.

There will be many give-a-ways and a raffle with exceptional prizes.

Arrangements have been made to have a buffet lunch in the Maryland Room at a fixed price of $10.00, including tax and tip. Entertainment in the room will be provided by Steve Gellman, local singer, songwriter, guitarist and a past nominee for "Best Contemporary Folk Vocalist" for the Washington Area and Vladimir Fridman, guitarist, singer extraordinaire and accompanist will perform music from around the world including Klezmar and Zumba with Carla .

Look to the next issue of the Leisure World News for more details about the Expo.

Don't forget to mark the date and join everyone at this yearly event.
