PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Now that the High Holidays are behind us, we can concentrate on doing "good deeds."

I compliment the members of JRLW for their generous contributions to our organization, not only donations of money, but also donation of their time.

It is donation of money that I feel a need to address at this time. So many of you donate to our Tzedakah and Prayer Book funds, and believe me it is most appreciated. But there is one fund that we seem to forget about. That is the Torah fund. Our Torahs need a lot of TLC and sometimes that means spending money. So, when you wish to remember or honor someone, please think about the Torah fund. You can send your check to Carol Wendkos.

One other thing I want to touch on is donating to our Onegs and Kiddushes. Even though there is a minimum amount of $25 per donation, you can always give more. When you make a donation, your name will be listed in our newsletter.

Shalom

JRLW BRUNCH

Karen Krausen & Joni Sommer

On Sunday, October 15, we will have the JRLW brunch at 10:00 am in the Crystal Ballroom in Clubhouse I.

Our speaker, Barbara Ramundo, is the Deputy Director of Hero Dogs, Inc., a non-profit corporation that improves quality of life for our nation's heroes by raising, training, and placing service dogs and other highly skilled canines, free of charge, with lifetime support of the partnerships. She will bring a Hero Dog with her to the brunch.

Mail your check, made out to JRLW, for $10.00 per person, to Shirley and Jerry Gordon, 15311 Beaverbrook Court, #3A, Silver Spring, MD 20906. Please try to get your check in early. If you do not make a reservation and decide to attend, the fee at the door will be $13.00 per person on a seat-available basis. See you at the Brunch!

NEW EDUCATION COMMITTEE SEMINAR WITH DR. MICHAEL SIEGEL

Sharon Freedman

Coming up is a new 2-part seminar, featuring Dr. Michael Siegel. Many of you may remember hearing Dr. Siegel this past year at one of our JRLW Sunday Brunches, where he spoke about the Presidents. He will be meeting with us just prior to his new book, U.S. Presidents as Leaders, being published by Prentice-Hall/Pearson Publishers.

The Education Committee has arranged for him to come for a series of two seminars, again on the Presidents. Both seminars will take place on a Friday, November 17 and December 1, 2017. They will take place from 10 – 11:30 am. The location will be announced next month. The cost for the 2 sessions will be $20.00 total. Make your check payable to JRLW and register at E&R. Please contact Sharon Freedman at skfreedman@yahoo.com, or 301-367-8141 to let her know of your interest in attending.

We look forward to seeing many of you there.

EXPLORING ULTRAORTHODOX LIFE IN ISRAEL THROUGH “SRUGIM”

We will explore Israel as we watch the highly acclaimed Israeli television series ‘Srugim.’ Instructor Ira Weiss will precede each episode with a discussion of this unique perspective of life in Israel and then follow the episode with Q & A.

Dates: Thursdays, Oct 19. – Nov 30.
(Skip date: 11/23)

Time: 10:30 am – 12:00 pm

Cost: $32

Code: 16857

Register in person at E&R, online at benderjccgw.org or contact Debbie Sokobin at 301-348-3760 or dsokobin@benderjccgw.org.

JRLW/CoA Movie

“Peggy Guggenheim: Art Addict” English (with some subtitles)

When: Monday, October 16, 1:30 - 3:30 pm

Where: Clubhouse II Auditorium. Discussion to follow.

A colorful character who was not only ahead of her time but helped to define it, Peggy Guggenheim was an heiress to her family fortune who became a central figure in the modern art movement. As she moved through the cultural upheaval of the 20th century, she collected not only art, but artists including such figures as Samuel Beckett, Max Ernst, Jackson Pollock, Alexander Calder and Marcel Duchamp, as well as countless others. While fighting through personal tragedy, she maintained her vision to build one of the most important collections of modern art, now enshrined in her venetian palazzo. Please note: Contains brief coarse language and some erotic art.

OCTOBER RELIGIOUS SERVICES

Reform Shabbat Services will be held on Friday evening, October 6, at 7:30 pm, in the Interfaith Chapel. Rabbi Gary Fink will conduct the Services. The choir will be led by Ed Laskin. An Oneg and social hour will follow the Services.

On Saturday morning, October 14, at 9:15 am, in Clubhouse II, we will hold a Shabbat Service. The Torah Portion will be Bereshit. The Haftorah will be chanted by Egon Guttman. The D'Var Torah will be given by Bernice Cohen. There will be a Kiddush following Services. Come for Services and stay for a nosh and shmooze with friends.

Rabbi Samber will lead a short service and Torah study on Saturdays, October 7, 21 and 28, at 9:15 am in Clubhouse II. All are welcome.

We will celebrate the holiday of Sukkot which will last from Wednesday, October 4 through Wednesday, October 11. We will have services in the Sukkah at 4:00 pm on Thursday, October 5 and on Sunday, October 8, through Wednesday, October 11. There will be Mincha Service on Saturday, October 7, at 6:45 pm. On Thursday, October 12, Shemini Atzeret, we will have a service in the Activities Room of Clubhouse II and will recite Yiskor.

The Sukkah will be on the grounds of the Interfaith Chapel as in previous years. Last year our Sukkah was destroyed by a mini-tornado that hit the Silver Spring area. We have bought a new Sukkah and will be setting it up on Monday, October 2, or, in case of inclement weather, on Tuesday, October 3. We will be taking down the Sukkah on Monday, October 16. Bob Fenichel (301-598-0285) will be in charge of setting up and taking down the Sukkah and will appreciate any help he can get. Please let him know if you can help.

GOOD AND WELFARE

We are happy that Theda Rosenblum is making a nice recovery from injuries she sustained as a result of a fall.

Thanks to the Religious Committee for all the hard work they do to make our High Holiday Services successful.

Congratulations to Joy and Bob Stromberg on their 70th Wedding Anniversary!

Bert Crystal had to undergo hernia repair surgery. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Hinda Exler is making a comeback from a fall that caused multiple injuries. Nice to see you back on your feet again, Hinda.

Ray Kurlander was hospitalized and then in rehab. We wish him a quick return to good health.

Congratulations to Pearl Crystal on the engagement of her grandson, Zackery Crystal, to Elise Taylor.

Mazel Tov to Shirley Griffin on the marriage of her granddaughter Emily Cahill.

NOTICE: THE DEADLINE FOR THE NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER IS OCTOBER 10. ARTICLES SUBMITTED AFTER THAT DATE WILL APPEAR IN THE DECEMBER NEWSLETTER.

CANTOR'S CORNER

Michael Kravitz

If you are of a certain age, you know this line from a song “You can get anything you want – at Alice’s Restaurant.” The song was a major hit for Arlo Guthrie – Woody’s son – in 1967. By the way, you may not know that while Woody Guthrie was not Jewish, his second wife Marjorie (Arlo’s mother) was, and in 1960 Arlo, under the tutelage of Rabbi Meir Kehane, celebrated his bar mitzvah. Obviously, at the time of Arlo’s “Alice’s Restaurant” hit, technology wasn’t nearly what it is today. I think that for people in the year 2017, it might be more accurate to say “You can get anything you want – on the INTERNET!” You want an item from Amazon? No problem. Once you’ve given them your credit card information, you go on your computer, tell them the item you want, specify the shipping you want and sit back and wait for the item to arrive at your door. What could be easier?

I guess I’m a little old-fashioned-- I don’t necessarily like the easy way out. Call it the thrill of the hunt. I have always enjoyed going out to look for things I need because I never know exactly what I’ll find, and it is so satisfying when those efforts pay off. That’s one of the reasons I still frequent used-record stores, thrift shops and garage and community sales looking for records, CDs and reel-to-reel tapes. Sometimes the efforts yield nothing, but sometimes I hit the mother lode. As I started writing this column back in August, I was reminded of the second congregation I served as cantor back in the early 1970s. It was called the Olney Jewish Congregation (now B’nai Shalom of Olney), and it met at the old Montgomery General Hospital. When I was hired to conduct High Holy Day services in 1973, the understanding was that I would conduct the services mostly by myself with some help from congregants. No rabbi! I knew I’d need help for sermons and stories about the holidays to use during services, so I went to Herb Goodman of Goodman’s Hebrew Books whom I’d first met in the late ‘60s when the store was on Georgia Avenue in the District, a store that would later move to the strip mall on University Boulevard right beside where Shalom Kosher supermarket used to be. Herb introduced me to a number of anthologies on the Jewish holidays that were edited by Rabbi Philip Goodman (no relation). I bought them all, and these books have been invaluable to me over the decades to come. Even though I regularly use the internet to find things about Judaism, I still peruse these books every year as the various Jewish holidays come close. And as I did that again this year, in the book THE SUKKOT AND SIMCHAT TORAH ANTHOLOGY, I found a poem I’d like to share with you.

I had first encountered a poet named Philip Raskin in a book called SABBATH:THE DAY OF DELIGHT that was edited by Rabbi Abraham Milgram. Raskin wrote a poem called KINDLING THE SABBATH LIGHT that I have used many times over the years at Friday evening services, some of which have been at Leisure World. Rabbi Goodman’s Sukkot/Simchat Torah anthology included another Raskin poem called “The Etrog.” Given the fact that Erev Sukkot is on October 4, the timing could not be better. Watch how vividly this 1925 poem still captures what an etrog can mean to people.

The Day of Atonement is over; My father an etrog has bought

And never the eyes of a lover did sparkle as his when he brought

And showed us the fruit that was shining with sheen of a tropical star,

The fruit for which hearts are still pining from homeland long exiled and far.

And never was valued a jewel as dear as the fruit was to him-

A value the centuries cruel could neither efface nor bedim.

I looked at the etrog the golden, and dreamt of the orchards of gold,

I dreamt of the ages the olden, that never in hearts will grow old.

I dreamt of the rills and the fountains that watered these gardens of yore,

The plains and the vales and the mountains that blossomless, blossom the more...

I looked at my father caressing the fruit that bejeweled his feast

And mutely my heart sent a blessing
To Zion – the Queen of the East.

Let me wish you all a joyous Sukkot and Simchat Torah.

HADASSAH

Barbara Eisen

Our next meeting will be held on Wednesday, October 25, at 2:00 pm, in Clubhouse I. Our featured guest will be Jim Auerbach, an award-winning photographer. He will present "A Jewish Cultural Tour of India" and will share stories about his trip and the techniques he used to take his pictures. A question and answer session will follow his slide show.

If you will be attending this meeting, please RSVP by October 20 to Janet Lazar (301-598-4066, lazarjl@verizon.net). If your last name starts from I through N, it would be appreciated if you would bring a snack for the refreshment table. Let Janet know what you are bringing when you RSVP. All Leisure World residents are welcome.

The Judaic Study Group will meet on Monday, October 16, at 1:30 pm, in Clubhouse I. The topic will be "The Tzimmes of Judaism." This includes facts, fantasies, myths, mysteries and traditions. A little bit of this and a little bit of that all end up in the great simmering pot that holds the myriad flavors of our collective Jewish lives. Do you have a family tradition, a long-held practice that you might not even know where it began or a tale told by your Bubbe? Please join us and add your spice to the pot. Contact Peri Schuyler (301-869-2968, perislaptop@aol.com) for further information.

Hadassah will be sponsoring a "Day on the Hill," on Tuesday, October 24, to find out what's happening in Washington D.C. The day starts in the parking lot of Ohr Kodesh Congregation, 8300 Meadowbrook Lane, Bethesda, at 8:15 am, to board a bus, which will leave promptly at 8:45 am. Our first stop, at 10:00 am, will be a briefing at the State Department. Next, we will proceed to the Embassy of Israel at 11:30 am for lunch and a briefing. Then at 2:00 pm, we will meet with Maryland legislators on Capitol Hill. The bus returns to Ohr Kodesh at 3:30 pm. Even though we have a bus to travel to the different locations, there will be some walking involved.

This is an exciting opportunity to learn about issues currently in the news and to hear about future plans from different perspectives. The registration fee, including the bus and lunch, is $72. Send your check, payable to Hadassah, to Hadassah Greater Washington, 11900 Parklawn Drive, Suite 350, Rockville, MD 20852, by October 9. On a registration form or on a separate piece of paper, list your name, address, phone, email, driver's license number, Social Security number and, if you are not a U.S. citizen, your passport number. You must remember to bring your photo ID on the day of the event. Questions should be directed to Sheila Lebowitz (301-346-6044). Participation will be limited to Hadassah members or associates. If you need a ride to the bus or are a driver with space to take others, please call either Janet Lazar (301-598-4066) or Lynn Berk (301-847-9104).

Elaine Schenberg (301-598-0079) is sharing the Hadassah card project with Jan Bloom (301-593-7720). The prices of the cards are $2.50 each or 5 for $10. Hadassah greeting cards are displayed and sold at every Hadassah meeting. Please call Elaine or Jan if you want to pick up cards or to have them mailed to the person you designate for an extra postal charge.

Larelda Gruber (301-598-5922) is chair of Youth Aliyah/Children at Risk. This project helps disadvantaged children in Israel. The goal is to create a circle of $1000, made by individual contributions of $40. Please send your donations to Larelda at 3200 N. Leisure World Blvd., #201, Silver Spring, MD 20906.

If you want to know more about Hadassah, contact one of our membership vice presidents, Carole Sonneborn (301-288-4902, Carole200@comcast.net) or Mimi Meltzer (301-806-0976, Mimi20852@aol.com).

NA'AMAT NEWS

Gladys Blank

Na'Amat USA - Na'Amat is the largest women's organization in Israel. Na'Amat works to improve the status of women and provides educational and social services for women, children, teenagers and families. Na'Amat fights for the advancement of women in the Knesset and the courts so they can be full and equal participants in Israel society. Every year more than 200 scholarships for higher education are awarded to deserving women.

Our trip to the Delaware Art Museum on August 23 was a big success. The grounds are well-kept; the docents were very knowledgeable; the Tea Service was lovely and the gift shop was full of treasures.

Our guest speaker for our opening meeting on September 6 was Delegate Benjamin F. Kramer of the Maryland General Assembly. Delegate Kramer wrote legislation creating the Senior Call-Check Service and Notification Program, as well as being an active participant in many other worthwhile Assembly legislation. We enjoyed his visit and his presentation.

Next on our agenda is our annual Fall FASHION SHOW scheduled for Wednesday, October 4th at 11:30 am. We are also looking forward to our much anticipated trip to Dover Downs Hotel and Casino on October 25/26. Flyers for both events should have reached you by now.

And - - New Year's Eve festivities are already being arranged. This year, we will be going to the Signature Theatre in Arlington to see CRAZY FOR YOU, followed by a delightful buffet in the Clubhouse.

If you are not already a member of RBZ Na'Amat, please become a member soon and help us keep the goals of Na'Amat on-going and successful. We meet the first Wednesday of each month in Clubhouse I. We look forward to meeting you.

ABOUT OUR HISTORY

Ralph Shapiro

How did Jews support the development of the NAACP movement?

In 1909, a small group of Jews helped establish the NAACP. Rabbi Stephen S. Wise was a leading fundraiser. Lawyer Joel Spingarn served as an effective chairman for the next 10 years. He worked with black leader W.E.B. DuBois to make the NAACP the most forceful organization for black civil rights at that time. He got the U.S. Army to establish a separate training camp for World War I black soldiers so they would have better opportunities to get commissions. His brother, Arthur Spingarn, was the NAACP legal counsel for many years and was president when the NAACP won the landmark Supreme Court case outlawing school segregation in 1954. Industrialist Kivie Kaplan was the NAACP president for over 10 years.

RECIPE CORNER

BEER BREAD

Rhona Bosin

Here is a simple recipe for delicious homemade bread. Only 3 ingredients!

3 cups self-rising flour (sifted)

3 tbsp sugar

1(12 ounce) can beer

Preheat oven to 350 degrees.

Mix dry ingredients and beer.

Pour into a greased loaf pan.

Bake 45 minutes, remove from pan and cool on rack for at least 15 minutes.

(Note: if you do not have self-rising flour, you may substitute regular flour. To 1 cup of flour, add 1 ½ tsp baking powder and ½ tsp salt.)

JEWISH WAR VETERANS POST 567 AT LEISURE WORLD

Milton Loube

NEXT BRUNCH OCTOBER 8, 2017 – SHELDON GOLDBERG RETIRED COLONEL USAF, Historian and Docent, National Museum of American Jewish Military History. Among his many awards and decorations Col. Goldberg holds the Distinguished Flying Cross with Oak Leaf Cluster and “V” for valor. He is currently the National Executive Committee Representative for the Department of Maryland Jewish War Veterans. Given that this year is the 100th Anniversary of America’s entry into WWI, Col. Goldberg will speak on the attitude towards and Jews in the Great War with slide illustrations. This promises to be a most informative and interesting presentation that you do not want to miss. The brunch will held in Clubhouse I, Crystal Ballroom at 10:15am . The cost of the delicious buffet menu, consisting of eggs, tuna fish, salad, blintzes, juice, coffee, Danish and more, plus an abundance of camaraderie is $14. Your reservation check payable to JWV 567 should be mailed to Danny Bass, 14805 Pennfield Circle, Apt 3-209 Silver Spring Md, 20906 as soon as possible. Please print the names of all those attending. All are welcome to attend and as always your support is greatly appreciated..

FRIENDS OF THE ISRAELI DEFENDSE FORCES (FIDF) DRAWS CAPACITY CROWD AT SEPTEMBER BRUNCH. Thanks to Jeffrey Holtzman, Board of Directors of FIDF D.C. Chapter, for facilitating the engagement. The presentations, including a brief film, by Henry Rosenbaum, Director FIDF Baltimore Region and IDF veteran Daniel Solomon were quite informative and was received by all with considerable interest. The Lone

Solider Program which supports the solider away from home is a commendable program that we veterans and friends of veterans fully understand and support. JWV has demonstrated time and again that it is a dedicated and loyal supporter of

Israel. If you wish to know more about FIDF look up www.fidf.org

OUR NEXT MEMBERSHIP MEETING OCTOBER 4, 2017. JWV meets every first Wednesday of each month in Clubhouse I at 10 am. The business of the Post is conducted and plans made for future events are discussed. All members are respectfully urged to attend and offer any ideas, views or suggestions to further enhance our programs. It would be most appreciated and certainly welcomed if you could lend a hand in any way possible.

It is well recognized that our members possess a lot of talent and know-how that could be of great benefit to your Post. Why not come to a meeting and see what we are all about and enjoy the friendly social contact with your fellow veterans? Bring your family and friends to the meeting. Let’s hear what they have to say or want to know. We will be happy to meet and greet them.

JWV is the oldest, active veterans organization in the USA, proud of our heritage and proud of our country. Jews have fought for liberty well before our Nation was born and in every war and battle since. Our love of our country is second to none and will always be so. Our support for our closest ally, Israel, will always be strong and unwavering.

If you would like to join our Post, we welcome you with open arms. For more information please contact Milt Loube 301-438-1444 or Danny Bass 301-438-8131.

HAVE YOU REMEMBERED TO SEND IN YOUR RESERVATION FOR THE JRLW ATLANTIC CITY TRIP? IF YOU HAVE NOT, CONTACT SUE SANDLER, 240-242-3742. THERE ARE STILL A FEW VACANCIES.
