PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Time is marching on and soon it will be autumn and all that comes with it: High Holidays, school buses on the streets and cool weather.

I mention school buses because we may become impatient if we are behind a bus that is picking up children or dropping them off. It is a necessary "nuisance," one that we must learn to "live" with. I only dwell on this subject because, for most of us, studying the laws concerning what to do when following or approaching a stopped school bus was a long time ago. I would suggest that each of us review what to do in this situation. It will help to avoid a tragedy.

Did you know that we now have an Administrative Vice-President? Her name is Renee Lease, and she is a very valuable addition to our Board. Welcome, Renee.

Our Religious Committee is researching new prayer books to bring JRLW religious services up to date. We will keep you informed when a decision is made.

Just a gentle reminder: JRLW dues are due and reservations for High Holiday Services should be in before September 16. Send dues and reservations to Milli White.

Don't forget that the first brunch of the new year is September 18. As in the past, the reservations will be collected by Jerry Gordon, 15311 Beaverbrook Court, Apt. 3A, Silver Spring, MD 20906. If you want to reserve a table, get ten checks together and send them in at the same time. Jerry will be sure to set aside a table for you.

I welcome all of the vacationers back to what I hope will be a wonderful year for JRLW.

Shalom,
Miriam (Kitty) Atkin

GUIDE TO SHIVA PRACTICES

Allan Firestone
Religious Vice-President

In our tradition, immediately upon the burial of a loved one we observe a period of mourning referred to as “sitting shiva”. During this time, family members traditionally gather in one home and receive visitors.

You may notice that often a tall candle usually provided by a funeral home is burning as a symbolic memorial to the deceased and in many homes people cover the mirrors. A house of shiva is usually stocked with food and drinks. It is intended to sustain the mourners and to celebrate the ongoing cycle of life.

During the period of the “shiva,” it is traditional to have a prayer service consisting of a minyan of ten or more Jewish persons to permit the mourners to recite the “kaddish.” This is one of the advantages of being a member of JRLW where we strive to organize a minyan for the mourners. When the appropriate time arrives Herb Hodes (301-288-4869) or Allan Firestone (301-598-7311) should be notified so that they can provide prayer books, yarmulkas, and enough people to consist of a minyan as well as a person to lead the service.

In contacting either Herb or Allan it would be useful to let them know where and when the service is to be conducted. Also, how many members of the family are expected to attend and if the family has made arrangements for someone to lead the service.

JRLW is staffed by volunteers and their services are totally free, although a thank you note is usually appreciated. However, it is traditional for the mourners to donate to a charity of their choice in memory of the deceased.

If members of the family of the deceased have any questions, they should be directed to Herb or Allan.

ANNUAL BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE
YIZKOR MEMORIAL 2016-2017, 5777

The "JRLW Book of Remembrance" has for the past four years provided an opportunity for individuals to honor the memories of beloved relatives, friends and other persons who are no longer with us.

The book includes the names of the donors along with the names of the departed, whom we so poignantly remember. The book is distributed Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, first. The complete Memorial Service is included in the book, so it may be used on the four occasions during the year when we recite Yizkor.

JRLW needs your support. This year, it is requested members contribute a minimum of $6.00 for each departed name listed below. All donations must be included with your application.

Our deadline for your donation is September 9, 2016.

CANTOR'S CORNER

Michael Kravitz

As you all know, the Jewish calendar is a lunar calendar, so the time at which the Jewish holidays fall can vary greatly from year to year when compared to the corresponding dates on the Gregorian calendar. Last year, in the year 2015 on the Gregorian calendar, Yom Kippur fell on September 23. This year, 2016, the beginning prayers for the High Holy Day season, the prayers for Selichot (forgiveness), are not recited in Ashkenazi communities until midnight on Saturday, September 24 and will continue throughout the Days of Awe. In Sephardic communities Selichot are begun starting with the second day of the month of Elul (which falls on September 5) and continue throughout the Days of Awe. Given that Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur don't fall until October this year, I thought I'd concentrate on those penitential prayers that fall this month.

According to Jewish tradition, a special service for forgiveness was instituted by King David. David prophetically saw the destruction of the Holy Temple and asked G-d, "How will the Jews atone for their sins?" G-d replied, "When suffering will befall the Jews because of their sins, they should gather before me in complete unity. Together they shall confess their sins and recite the order of the Selichot, and I will answer their prayers."

There are a number of parts to the Selichot service. One is the recitation of the Thirteen Attributes of G-d (sometimes called the Thirteen Attributes of Mercy) that are taken from EXODUS chapter 34 vs. 16-17. "Adoshem, Adoshem, k'Eyl rachum v'chanun. Erech apayim v'rav chesed veh-emet. No-tzeir chesed loh-ah-la-feem. No-say avon vah-feshah v'chatah-ah v'nah-kay." Translated, "The Lord! The Lord! A G-d compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abundant in kindness, extending kindness to the thousandth generation, forgiving iniquity, transgression and sin; yet He does not remit all punishment."

A second part of the Selichot service is the inclusion of Piyutim, poetic works often written as acrostics, in which the first word of verses begins with letters of the Hebrew alphabet in order. A third part is the inclusion of pizmonim, which are hymns in which the congregation reads a line and the leader chants it after them. Two other important parts are Shma Koleinu ("hear our voice") and Ashamnu, an alphabetical list of sins that the community has committed during which time it is customary for each of us to beat our chests with the mention of each sin. Each of these can also be found in either (or, in some cases, both) the Rosh Hashanah or Yom Kippur liturgies.

Musically, Selichot can be a very powerful service, especially when conducted by a first-rate cantor and choir. Many of you remember Beth Shalom Congregation when it was at 13th Street and Eastern Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. I know a number of you davened there. One of my most cherished memories of Selichot came in the mid-70s when Cantor Jeffrey Nadel was hired at Beth Shalom and he led the Selichot service with a choir accompaniment. His magnificent tenor voice, complemented by that choir, is something I have never forgotten. For those of you with a computer who would like to hear another first-rate chazzan accompanied by a choir during a Selichot service, go to Youtube and type in "Cantor Netanel Hershtik Selichot, 2012." He begins with ASHREI. Musically stunning!

THE DEADLINE FOR THE OCTOBER NEWSLETTER IS SEPTEMBER 10. ARTICLES SUBMITTED AFTER THAT DATE WILL APPEAR IN THE NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER.

If you are planning to go on the JRLW Atlantic City trip and haven't made your reservation, please call Sue Sandler at 240-242-3742

At BSO, we are committed to being able to pray daily in a community context, as well as to gather with a minyan to recite the Mourner's Kaddish. However, we often lack the 10 adults required to fulfill this commitment. So, we're making some changes to make it easier to participate.

Effective immediately, Monday-Thursday evening minyan will take only about 15 minutes. Want to volunteer to help? Email Ben Katcoff at benkatcoff@aol.com.

JRLW/CoA MOVIE

"DANCING IN JAFFA"

English/Arabic/Hebrew w/English subtitles

WHEN: Thursday, September 29

WHERE: Clubhouse II 1:30- 3:30 pm

Discussion to follow

COST: $6.00/person

Pierre Dulaine, four-time ballroom dancing world champion, is fulfilling a life-long dream when he takes his program, Dancing Classrooms, back to his city of birth, Jaffa. For generations, Jaffa has been a city divided by two communities that continue to grow increasingly apart. Over a 10-week period, Pierre teaches Jewish and Palestinian Israeli children to dance and compete together.

The film explores the complex stories of three children, all of whom are forced to confront issues of identity, segregation and racial prejudice as they dance with their enemy. We watch Pierre transform their lives, confirming his belief that dance can overcome hatred and provide the first steps towards real change.

NA'AMAT NEWS

Ruth Reid

September means different things to different people; to young people it says "back to school;" to NA'AMAT members it says, "what has NA'AMAT planned for us in the coming months?"

The first event, and it is a most exciting one, is "Brunch with Marvin Kalb." We will have our opening meeting on Wednesday, September 7, at 11:30 am in Clubhouse I Ballroom. We will have a delicious meal of salads (tuna, egg and carrot) and kugels made by our members. Before we eat, we will see a short video titled, "The Ninetieth NA'AMAT Anniversary," showing all the good things being done in Israel that our donations help to support. Watching the video will make you proud of your support for NA'AMAT.

After lunch Marvin Kalb will speak, focusing on National events such as the elections, politics, race relations and other important issues.

Mr. Kalb is knowledgeable and most informative and interesting. A question and answer period will follow. We will also distribute our NEW directories.

If you haven't made a reservation yet, contact Harriet Chaikin (240) 560-7487 to see if there is still available space. The cost of this event is $14.00 per person.

On Wednesday, October 5, we will have our annual fashion show/luncheon featuring unusual, lovely clothes from the boutique, "The Look," in Olney.

On Wednesday, November 2, we will have a delightful program called "Jewish Women of the Wild West," a topic that we probably know little about and will have learned more after the program.

On Thursday, December 8, we will hold our annual card party. We always enjoy playing and being with friends at this event, and it is a very good fundraiser (note the change of date from Wednesday, December 7 to Thursday December 8).

Our goal is to raise funds for NA'AMAT Israel. They appreciate our financial support for their many important facilities: day care centers for young children that allow their parents to go to work knowing that their children are being watched and nourished, legal aid to women and scholarships for youths and women.

Thank you for your membership and concern for our NA'AMAT Israel sisters. Keep this in mind when you come to a fund raising event or make a donation!

Remember: THINK ISRAEL, THINK NA'AMAT!

Did you know??

The Goldberg Brothers - The Inventors of the Automobile Air Conditioner.

Here's a little fact for automotive buffs or just to dazzle your friends. The four Goldberg brothers, Lowell, Norman, Hiram, and Maxwell, invented and developed the first automobile air conditioner. On July 17, 1946, the temperature in Detroit it was 97 degrees.

The four brothers walked into old man Henry Ford's office and sweet-talked his secretary into telling him that four gentlemen were there with the most exciting innovation in the auto industry since the electric starter. Henry was curious and invited them into his office.

They refused and instead asked that he come out to the parking lot to their car. They persuaded him to get into the car, which was about 130 degrees, turned on the air conditioner, and cooled the car off immediately. The old man got very excited and invited them back to the office, where he offered them $3 million for the patent. The brothers refused, saying they would settle for $2 million, but they wanted the recognition by having a label, 'The Goldberg Air Conditioner,' on the dashboard of each car in which it was installed. Now old man Ford was more than just a little anti-Semitic, and there was no way he was going to put the Goldberg's name on two million Fords. They haggled back and forth for about two hours and finally agreed on $4 million and that just their first names would be shown.

And so to this day, all Ford air conditioners show Lo, Norm, Hi and Max on the controls.

Oy Vey!! I can hear your groans from here. Control yourself !!!

RELIGIOUS COMMITTEE PREPARING FOR THE HIGH HOLIDAYS

The Religious Committee is working hard to ensure that our High Holiday services are well organized and go off in order. The order form for High Holiday tickets is on page 3 of this Newsletter. We list the schedule of High Holiday services for the Reform and Conservative congregations.

Tickets for the High Holiday services are required and requests for them should be directed to Milli White. It should be noted that tickets are not required for members of the Military or those who wish to attend Yizkor services only. We will not turn away any member of JRLW who wishes to attend the full services but has financial difficulties. Anyone who cannot afford tickets should contact the Religious Vice-President. Also, members who wish to invite their grandchildren to services will be able to do so on the second day of Rosh Hashanah.

Anyone who wishes to be called up to the Torah or who would like to participate in other portions of the services should contact Janet Lazar and/or Matty Feldman for Conservative Services or Gerry Sommer for the Reform Services.

FRIDAY EVENING SHABBAT SERVICES

JRLW holds Friday evening Shabbat Services on the first Friday of each month.

In the afternoon, a crew comes and sets up a delicious Oneg for us to share following Services. Another crew comes in and transforms the Interfaith Chapel into a Jewish sanctuary. As you enter Services, someone is there to greet you and to hand you a book and a pamphlet, D'Var Shabbat.

The Services are short--an hour or less. Rabbi Fink leads a lovely service and gives a short talk on the Torah Portion, usually relating it to current affairs. Ed Laskin leads the choir in songs we are all familiar with even if we do not read or understand the Hebrew.

The problem is that the Services are not well attended. What a waste of time and effort. I have heard our members complain that they do not know anyone in JRLW outside of their immediate circle of friends. Well, here is your chance to remedy that. Come to Services and say hello to at least two people you do not know. You will be surprised at how friendly we are.

It's a win-win situation. You get to see the Shabbat candles lit, take part in our Services, hear Rabbi Fink's thoughtful talks and enjoy socializing with new and old friends while noshing on delicious treats. And we get to see you at Services, helping to fill up the pews.

Looking forward to seeing you on Friday, September 2, at 7:30 pm. It's a date!

 1/2 cup brown sugar
 3 eggs
 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
 1 cup warm coffee or strong tea
 1/2 cup fresh orange juice
 1/4 cup whisky
 1/2 cup slivered or sliced almonds (optional)
 Buy all at

Preheat the oven to 350°F. Lightly grease 9-inch angel food cake pan.

In a large bowl, whisk together the flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt, and spices. Make a well in the center and add the oil, honey, sugars, eggs, vanilla, coffee, orange juice, and whisky.

Using a strong wire whisk or an electric mixer on slow speed, combine the ingredients well to make a thick batter, making sure that no ingredients are stuck to the bottom of the bowl.

Spoon the batter into the prepared pan and sprinkle the top of the cake evenly with the almonds. Place the cake pan on 2 baking sheets stacked together and bake until the cake springs back when you touch it gently in the center. Bake for 60 to 70 minutes. This is a liquidy batter and, depending on your oven, it may need extra time. Cake should spring back when gently pressed.

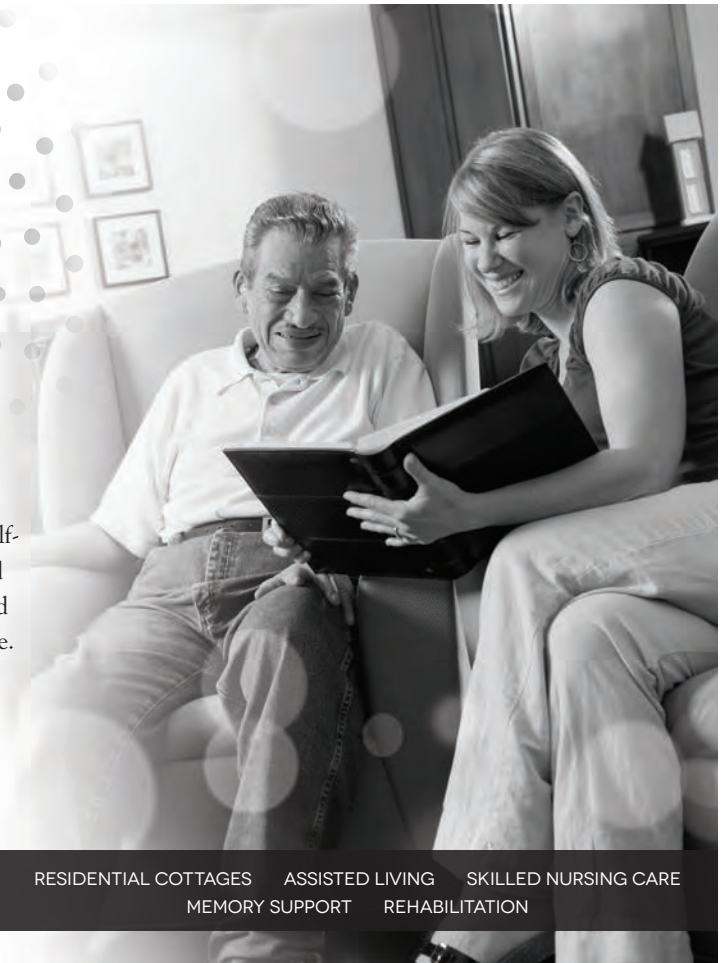

Let the cake stand for 15 minutes before removing it from the pan. Then invert it onto a wire rack to cool completely.
