PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As we approach the year 5774, I am sure we are all preoccupied with getting ready to welcome the New Year. I am proud to say the Jewish Residents of Leisure World organization is also ready to begin a new year. Good ideas are coming and functions are happening. We are moving along smoothly and looking forward to the year ahead. We are planning trips, brunches and fun times together. So stay tuned!

My thanks to Allan Firestone and his committee for all the planning and work they have done to prepare for our services for the High Holidays. If you have not purchased your tickets for Services and the Break-the-Fast, you still have time to call Milli White.

Thanks to Nate and JoAnne Sternberg and Theda Rosenblum for the lovely new Yiskor Book which we will be using throughout the year. It took many hours of hard work to produce it and we all appreciate their efforts.

If you have or know of anyone who is interested in moving to Bedford Court, I will be very happy to assist you. Bedford Court has offered me, as President of JRLW, $1000.00 per resident who moves in. I will donate that amount to our Torah Fund. We are in need of a new, lighter Torah-- one not as heavy as the ones we have. It is very difficult to lift the Torah as it gets near the end of the year because as it is rolled it gets heavier on one side.

Our success comes from all the members and wonderful chairpersons and their committees. Sue Rudo and her Membership Committee are doing an outstanding job getting new members. If you know of someone who might be interested in joining JRLW, please let Sue know.

JRLW needs a Vice President. If you know of someone, please call me. There is a job for everyone and everyone needs a job.

The Officers and Board Members of JRLW wish you a Healthy and Happy New Year.

L'Shana Tova.

Religious Committee

SHIVA MINYANS

One of the services that the Religious Committee provides to our members is to organize a Minyan for family members who are sitting shiva. Egon Guttman has been in charge of organizing minyans and ensuring that enough people were available to participate in the service. Unfortunately, Egon is no longer able to fulfill this function. We want to thank him for his many years of work.

At the same time we are fortunate to have a new member of the Religious Committee who has volunteered to take on this very important task. Lou Paley is our new Shiva Minyan coordinator and should be contacted by families that wish to have a minyan while sitting shiva.

Lou can be reached on 301-598-2493 or cautious721@gmail.com. In the event Lou cannot be reached, contact me at 301-598-7311 or afire201@verizon.net.

MEMBERSHIP – MANY THANKS

Many, many thanks go to the amazing and patient 22 people (myself included) who made 220 phone calls (10 each) reminding those to pay their dues. The dues year is June 1 through May 31 and the first full page information and application appeared in the May Newsletter. Thankfully, members complied because of the phone calls and JRLW is once again one of the strongest organizations in LW. We have 1100 members.

Thanks to the telephone callers: Toby Bailin, Abbey Brahin, Walter Budman, Bernice Cohen, Shirley Collier, Elaine Daniels, Evelyn Dickman, Roz Franke, Barbara Firestone, Claire Gersten, Glenda Goodman, Judy Kirsch, Shirley Kirschenbaum, Janet Lazar, Sheila Myers, Rae Paley, Elaine Schenberg, JoAnne Sternberg, Pat Stone, Joyce Tanenbaum and Milli White.

Sue Rudo, Membership Chair

DEADLINE FOR OCTOBER NEWSLETTER IS TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10. ITEMS RECEIVED AFTER THAT DATE WILL APPEAR IN THE NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER.

THE BRUNCHES ARE COMING!!!

Sheila Chodorov

Inasmuch as September is filled with the High Holy Days, our first Brunch of the new year will be held on Sunday, October 20. We look forward to having everyone join us that morning.

Many hours of preparation are spent prior to every Brunch. I never engage a speaker, musical program or panel discussion without first having observed every presenter myself.

Recommendations for programs enjoyed at other venues are most welcome. Actually, during the past five years I have served as your Program Chairperson, numerous programs you have enjoyed came to my attention from members who have heard/seen these presenters at other locations for other organizations.

Lastly, I am looking for someone to join my committee who has an interest in presenting quality programs suitable and attractive to our members. If you think you are that person, please contact me, Sheila Chodorov at 240 449-0229 or sjchodorov@yahoo.com.

Y'all come to the Brunches, ya hear!!

ACE PROGRAMS AT LEISURE WORLD

JRLW will continue to co-sponsor the interesting and thought-provoking JCC Adult Center for Education (ACE) program this fall providing four new courses; The History of Civil Rights and Liberties; 50 years: The History of Israel, 1948-1998; Comparative Religion Series; and Theatre Workshop: "The Colors of Red: The Mendel Beiliss Defense." The classes will meet on Tuesdays starting October 1 and run through November 12, in Club House I from 9:45 am to 3:30 pm. There will be no classes on November 5. The cost for each course will be $25.00 for members and Leisure World Residents and $35.00 for Non-Residents. Registration will begin this month in Club House I.

Class Schedule:

The History of Civil Rights and Liberties – Instructor Paul Levy 9:45 – 10:45 am

Paul H. Levy is a retired history and social science teacher.

This course will review the history of selected Rights and Liberties stated or incorporated in our founding documents and Constitution. Among subjects included will be gun control, freedom of speech, and equality. Time will be spent on the 14th Amendment and an in-depth examination of the contributions of Thurgood Marshall and Martin Luther King, Jr. Each class will provide historical context followed by discussion of a related contemporary issue.

Comparative Religion Series 11:00 am – 12:00 pm

Religion affects the daily lives of its adherents, giving moral purpose and guidance for the conduct of many in society. This series is meant to educate, promote understanding and respect for different religious faiths in our community and reveal the commonalities in their differences.

Leaders from five different religions in the D.C. area will share their beliefs and practices, and hopefully help deepen appreciation of your own beliefs and practices and build respect for the traditions followed by others.

50 years: The History of Israel, 1948 to 1998 – Instructor Dr. Ira Weiss 12:45 – 2:15 pm

Dr. Weiss is a retired neurophysiologist and collector of cinema related to Jews and Israel.

Through rare dramatic documentary film collected by the Israel Broadcast Authority, supplemented by short lectures and discussion, we will examine the first fifty years of Jewish statehood. We will witness Israel's in-gathering of exiles, its wars, its efforts to make peace, wrestling with its national identity and its economic revolution from agriculture to high tech in only a few years.

Theatre Workshop: "The Colors of Red: The Mendel Beiliss Defense" – Instructor Howard Eisner 2:15 – 3:30 pm

Howard Eisner, DS, is a retired electrical engineer, research professor, author and businessman.

"Beiliss Accused of Ritual Murder...Kiev, 1913." Mendel Beiliss, a Russian Jew, stands accused of murdering a Christian child in order to use his blood for the Passover Seder. After two years of imprisonment, Beiliss will finally have his trial. The world watches with "horror and disbelief," waiting, wondering whether Beiliss will be convicted. Area playwright Howard Eisner has dramatized the true story of Mendel Beiliss' defense in bold, compelling strokes. Class participants will bring this new, suspenseful drama to life and explore the trial.

GOOD AND WELFARE

Mazel Tov to Trudy and Larry Stone. They celebrated their 60th Anniversary last month. Their grandson Brad is getting married this month.

Congratulations to Sandy and Buddy Budman in honor of their first great-grandchild Sidney Rose Schuman.

All good wishes to Beatrice Ableman who is recovering at the Hebrew Home.

Mazel Tov to Marilyn & George Kessler on the engagement of their grandson Rafael Green to Hadas Suissa from Kiryat Ata in Israel. Rafi lives in Beersheva and is registering for his Army service. The Kesslers recently returned from a three week stay in Israel where they also celebrated the birth of their fourth great-grandchild Emuna Ginsburg. This is the first child of their granddaughter Tzipora and her husband Adi. They will undoubtedly return to Israel in January for a wedding.

Best wishes to Sheila Myers for a speedy recovery.

INVESTMENT SCAM PROGRAM

JRLW and the FINRA Investor Education Foundation will present a free seminar dealing with concerns you should have when investing your money. The program will take place October 3, starting at 5:30 pm in Clubhouse I's Crystal Ballroom. As retirees, responses to offers for investment opportunities can be very critical to your income and the safety of your assets. A panel of experts will show you the common tactics used by today's con artists offering lucrative investment opportunities and the simple steps you can take to protect yourself. The speakers will offer free tools and resources to inform and assist you if you suspect investment fraud.

A free buffet dinner will be served at 5:30 pm, with the presentation to follow at 6 pm. Sign up in the E&R office following the publication of the September 3rd issue of the Leisure World News. This event is sponsored by the Jewish Residents of Leisure World for the community as a continuing service to protect our senior citizens from scams and fraudulent offerings. For information or questions, please contact our President Morton Davis.

WE REMEMBER THEM

Our condolences to the families of the following:

Alvin Craig.
Mildred Roberts.

May their memory be a blessing.

What's Cooking in the Kitchen?

Submitted by Rae Paley

Kasha Knishes

Ingredients:

- 2 ½- cups sifted flour
- 2- eggs
- 1/2- teaspoon salt
- 2- tablespoons water
- 2/3- cup salad oil
- 1- teaspoon baking powder

Directions:

Sift flour, baking powder and salt into a bowl. Mix dry ingredients well. In the center of the mixture, drop the eggs, oil and water. Work into flour mixture with your hands and knead until smooth. Chill dough while preparing fillings. Divide dough in half and roll as thin as possible. Brush with oil. Spread filling on one half of the dough, and roll up like a jelly roll. Cut into 1½ inch slices. Place on oiled baking sheet, cut side down. Press down and lightly flatten. Bake in 375~ oven about 45 minutes. If frozen after baking, reheat in 375 degree oven for 15 minutes.

Kasha Filling:

- 1- cup medium kasha, uncooked
- 1- large onion, finely chopped
- 2-3 -Tablespoons of chicken fat salt and pepper to taste
- 2-3- cups chicken broth or water
- 1-egg, optional

Directions:

Saute onions in fat until golden, and set aside. Heat kasha in a saucepan over medium heat until browned. Add any combination of liquids. Cook for about 15 minutes, until kasha is soft but not dry. Add more liquid if needed. Stir in sauteed onions. Season to taste.

COMING OF AGE MOVIE

“Broadway Musicals: A Jewish Legacy” The film will be shown Tuesday, September 10, 1:30 - 3:30 pm in Clubhouse II. Tickets are available at E&R Office in Clubhouse I for $6 per person, check payable to JRLW.

The documentary film explores the unique role of Jewish composers and lyricists in the creation of the modern American musical. An engaging film, it features interviews and conversations with some of the greatest composers and writers of the Broadway stage, including Irving Berlin, Jerome Kern, George and Ira Gershwin, Richard Rodgers, Leonard Bernstein, and others.

An important element in the beginnings of the American musical was the Yiddish Theater. Here a number of Broadway composers got their start or found inspiration for their "American" songs.

National Falls Prevention Day 2013

By Coming of Age in Maryland Social Worker

Beth Shapiro • 301-816-2665 •

bshapiro@jssa.org

The 6th Annual National Falls Prevention Awareness Day will be observed on Sept. 22, 2013. This year's theme is Preventing Falls - One Step at a Time.

In a recent article Alan M. Jette, PT, PhD, the Director of the Health and Disability Research Institute at Boston University says, “The term ‘fear of falling’ (FOF) describes an exaggerated concern of falling that frequently leads to a self-imposed restriction in activities. The fearful older person narrows her world, often resulting in social isolation and a spiraling physical, emotional, and functional decline until even simple acts like taking a bath or walking to the mailbox are insurmountable.”

Dr. Jette denoted the World Health Organization's reference in 2007 when he said, “Support from family, friends and professionals can mitigate this fear and can act as a buffer against the potential debilitating effects of FOF. People who rely on friends and talk about their fears were least likely to report activity curtailment (Howland et al, 1998). This support may encourage the older person to remain active despite fears and seek help when needed.”

And here's where COA comes in! Check out our great social programs – stay connected and in good health!

A REMINDER TO THE LADIES

During Services after the Torah Reading when the Torah is marched thru the aisles we all want to touch the holy scrolls.

Please remember these simple steps. For those of us wearing Tallisum, touch your Tallit to the Torah cover first, then to your lips. If not wearing a Tallit, you may want to touch the prayer book to the Torah cover and then to your lips. If you want to touch the Torah cover with your fingers, that is fine. But please remember to touch the cover first and then put your fingers to your lips. We don't want to get lipstick on our beautiful Torah covers. Thanks.

MT. SCOPUS HADASSAH

Barbara Eisen

The Greater Washington Area Chapter is planning a joint 2013/2014 opening meeting for all Hadassah groups on Sunday, September 22, at Fox Hill, 8300 Burdette Road, Bethesda. Brunch will start at 10:00am. The keynote speaker will be Sally Oren, the wife of the current Israeli ambassador. The cost is $10 plus a voluntary donation to show your support of Hadassah. Send your check to Hadassah, 6101 Executive Blvd., Suite 130, Rockville, MD 20852 by September 15. Reservations and payments may also be made online at openingmeeting.dchadassah.org. Mt. Scopus is organizing a car pool to provide transportation to the meeting. Please call Janet Lazar at 301-598-4066 if you can drive someone or if you need a ride.

Our regular meeting will be on Wednesday, September 18, in Clubhouse I. Sharon Cadoff will conduct the installation of the Mt. Scopus officers for 2013/2014. Socializing begins at 12:30 pm and the meeting starts at 1:00 pm. All residents are welcome to attend.

The Mt. Scopus Judaic Study Group will meet on Monday, September 16, at 1:30 pm in Clubhouse I. The group will be studying Proverbs. For further information call Joan Lees at 301-598-3768.

Eyre Travel is taking reservations for our joint trip to see "Menopause The Musical" on Tuesday, September 17, at the Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre in Lancaster, PA. The cost is $99 and can be paid either by phone at 301-598-1599 or by stopping into the Eyre Travel Office in Clubhouse I. The bus will depart Clubhouse II at 9:30 am and return at 6:00 pm. Make sure that you tell Eyre Travel that you are sponsoring Hadassah when you make your reservation so that we will get the credit.

NA'AMAT NEWS

Ruth Reid

Whether you call it Autumn or Fall, it means that summer is leaving, the next season is approaching and Na'Amat is busy planning our events.

First we want to wish you and your family (and friends) a very Happy and Healthy New Year.

Inasuch as Rosh Hashanah is early this year and would coincide with our first meeting, we have had to put off our first Open Meeting. The meeting will be held on Wednesday, September 11, at 12:30 pm in Clubhouse I. Our speaker will be Dr. Allan Lichtman who, with Richard Breitman, co-authored the book "FDR and the Jews." This book is a richly detailed account of the President's relationship with the Jewish community. This relationship was complicated, multidimensional and contentious. Mark your calendars and be sure to attend this meeting. Books for signing and purchasing will be available.

Our next Board Meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 17, 10:30 am.

Looking ahead to October: our Annual Fashion Show/Brunch will be held on Wednesday, October 2. To add to this event we will have piano music by "Elaine."

On Sunday, October 27, we will attend the matinee performance of the musical "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying," at the Dutch Apple Dinner Theatre. There will be a lovely lunch followed by a delightful show; a most enjoyable day. Contact Harriet Moore 301-438-6069 for more information.
